RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws and the Richmond City Charter, the Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby and officially proclaim:

Richmond Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week

Whereas, Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, affirms that some of the most basic needs for human life and self-sufficiency are safe shelter, nutritious food, medical care, and clean water; and

Whereas, Everyone, no matter their current situation, is a product of and vulnerable to the fortune, fate, and consequences that providence, nature, luck, upbringing, chance, health, ability, effort, choice, and events impart; and

Whereas, Each individual woman, man, and child that has or is experiencing hunger and/or homelessness has a unique circumstance and is part of many precipitating factors and events that led them to their current situation; and

Whereas, The plight of hunger and homelessness affects people of all ages, races, ethnicities, and geographies and brings with it the challenges, struggle, despair, fear, and dangers that, as life is precious, none should have to experience; and

Whereas, Richmond residents assist anti-hunger and homelessness efforts by supporting the delivery of public housing, public social services/food assistance, public transportation, public safety, public education, and many other public services provided on behalf of the community; and

Whereas, In addition, Richmond includes many important dedicated nonprofit organizations, entities, and individuals helping to provide, support, and deliver a collaborative network of hunger and homelessness services on behalf of those in need; and

Whereas, As a result of the dedicated efforts of all those involved, Richmond and the Richmond Region is recognized as a leader in helping build, coordinate, deliver, and sustain the resources and services needed to help prevent and respond to hunger and homelessness; and

Whereas, In order to create additional attention to the issues of hunger and homelessness a Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week was created in 1975 at Villanova University in Pennsylvania, which is now celebrated annually throughout the nation during the week before Thanksgiving;

Now, Therefore, In order to help bring further awareness and attention to hunger and homelessness, Richmond City Council does hereby and officially proclaim the week before Thanksgiving as Richmond Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, in perpetuity, in Richmond, Virginia; thanks all public, private, and nonprofit organizations, entities, and individuals helping build, coordinate, deliver, and sustain the resources and services needed to help prevent and respond to hunger and homelessness; and, brings this to attention of all Richmond residents.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto given under our hands for presentation on the twelfth of November, two thousand nineteen, of the Common Era, in the two hundred eighty-second year of the foundation of Richmond in 1737, in the two hundred forty-third year of the Commonwealth of Virginia and United States of America.

RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL RECOGNITION AWARD

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws and the Richmond City Charter, the Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby and officially recognize:

Carolyn N. Thomas

Richmond City Council, the official governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby officially recognize, honor, and celebrate Carolyn N. Thomas for many years of dedicated community and public service on behalf of our community.

Distinguished over the years by many in our community for her work on behalf of fellow Richmond residents, Carolyn N. Thomas is known for the civic engagement and neighborhood spirit that she brings with her in every aspect of life.

One of the many examples of her commitment includes her more than 40 years of commitment in helping to provide and support our residents with the accurate and efficient administration of political elections for local, state, and national offices.

Recognized as one of the longest tenures in recent times, Ms. Thomas's served from 1971 through 2015 as the Election Officer and Chief Election Officer for the Commonwealth of Virginia Richmond Electoral Board Office of the General Registrar of Voters Precinct Number 812, located at 3400 Broad Rock Boulevard.

In America, public service is considered to be among the most noble and important work a person can do and, through living example, Carolyn N. Thomas has proven a great devotion to and support of the principles and creed written into the founding documents of our great nation, in that our individual destinies and that of our families, communities, city, state, and country include not only the aspiration of our federal constitutional republic but, the time, talent, investment, labor, and dedication of all residents in realizing the fulfillment of its promise.

Now, Therefore, Richmond City Council does hereby recognize, honor, and celebrate Carolyn N. Thomas for many years of dedicated service on behalf of our community and thanks her for helping to make our city an even better place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit, enjoy, and raise a family.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto given under our hands for presentation on the twelfth of November, two thousand nineteen, of the Common Era, in the two hundred eighty-second year of the foundation of Richmond in 1737, in the two hundred forty-third year of the Commonwealth of Virginia and United States of America.

RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL RECOGNITION AWARD

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws and the Richmond City Charter, the Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby and officially recognize:

2019 Richmond Little League Intermediate 50/70 All Star Baseball Team

Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby officially recognize, honor, and celebrate the 2019 Richmond Little League Intermediate 50/70 All Star Baseball Team.

Comprised of players carefully selected from among the eight regular season teams within the 2019 Richmond Little League Intermediate 50/70 division, All Star Baseball Team members are nominated by the league's regular season managers. To be picked to play on the All Star Baseball Team, a player must have played in 60 percent of their regular team's games and meet all the other Richmond Little League eligibility requirements.

Representing boys, ages 11-13, living within the Richmond Little League's catchment area, the Intermediate 50/70 division refers to the age level of the players and the dimensions of the baseball diamond used, in which the pitcher's mound is located 50 feet from home plate and bases are 70 feet apart, which is considered to increase safety and ease transition to a 60/90 field, used at higher levels of baseball.

A regional division of Little League® Baseball, Inc., Richmond Little League is a chartered program affiliate that teaches children, ages 5-16, the sports of boys baseball and girls softball and games are played on public fields that include the Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation, and Community Facilities Byrd Park Baseball/Softball Diamond and the Richmond Public Schools Maymont Preschool Center and John B. Cary Elementary School.

Considered to be a highly successful program, this year the 2019 Richmond Little League Intermediate 50/70 All Star Baseball Team, which includes a manager, two coaches, and 13 players, excelled in winning both the Little League Regional District Championship Series and the Regional State Baseball Championship Series and played in the international Regional Baseball Championship Series.

The result of tremendous talent, support, skill, ability, hard work, and dedication, the team's success is a sterling testament to the individual and mutual commitment of players, managers, coaches, Board of Directors members, umpires, auxiliary staff, field workers, parents, families, caregivers, teachers, and supporters in providing the time, talent, and treasure on its behalf.

Now, Therefore, In recognition of their hard work and determination, Richmond City Council does hereby officially recognize, honor, and celebrate the 2019 Richmond Little League Intermediate 50/70 All Star Baseball Team; thanks all those instrumental in their success; and, brings this to the attention of all Richmond residents.
