Please List Your Educational Background and/or Other Expertise or Qualifications You Will Bring to This Authority, Board, Commission or Task Force:

During my time as a student at William & Mary, I served as a class senator in the student government. In this role, I regularly engaged with student groups and campus communities to determine how best to allocate university-provided funding to enhance student life. This included conducting listening sessions, attending club meetings, and holding informal conversations with student leaders to better understand their needs and priorities. These insights informed the proposals and initiatives I developed to improve the student experience. I believe this hands-on experience in collaborative budgeting and community engagement has prepared me well to serve Richmond's diverse communities on the Participatory Budgeting Steering Commission.

Additionally, I completed a graduate course in budgeting and finance for public sector organizations through Virginia Tech's public policy program. This course focused on how public sector budgeting—particularly in

I currently serve on the City of Richmond's Social Services Advisory Board and began in this role in March of this year. Additionally, I served on the City of Williamsburg Social Services Advisory Board for a period of two years from 2022-2024.

Other Community Involvement:

Since moving to Richmond, I have become actively involved in several community organizations that serve vulnerable populations. I volunteer regularly with Beyond Boundaries and SOAR365, which has allowed me to engage directly with individuals with disabilities and special needs in the Richmond area.

I have also worked closely in building a relationship with Partnership for the Future, a Richmond-based nonprofit that supports low-income students in building college and career readiness, as a part of my fellowship I am completing. Through this partnership, I have helped organize a career workshop and introduced students to careers in state and local public service, among other enrichment activities.

In addition, I serve as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for the City of Richmond.
