Public Hearing

Kei'Shaun Hardy, Virginia Union University student, spoke in support of ORD. 2025-173 and stated that the proposed development of the Gateway North complex represents an historic moment of growth for VUU that will expand opportunities for future generations of students.

Jenyia Andrews, Virginia Union University student, spoke in support of ORD. 2025-173 and stated that the proposed development will provide housing stability for students and strengthen the relationship between VUU and city leadership.

Councilor Stephanie Lynch returned at 7:01 p.m.

Jasira Lemaitre, Virginia Union University NAACP President and SGA Vice President of External Affairs, spoke in support of ORD. 2025-173 and the importance of providing affordable housing for students and graduates.

James Johnson III, Virginia Union University student, spoke in support of ORD. 2025-173 and stated that the proposed development at Gateway North will help ensure that VUU students and graduates can remain in the city to reinvest their skills and energy into the community.

Cameron Cosby, Virginia Union University graduate student, spoke in support of ORD. 2025-173 and the Gateway North complex as a meaningful step towards stability, health, and opportunity.

Charles Willis spoke in support of ORD. 2025-194 through ORD. 2025-200, and thanked Council for considering the honorary designation of streets for such meaningful individuals.

Adrienne Whitaker, Minority Business Enterprise and Emerging Small Business Advisory Board Chair, spoke in support of RES. 2025-R040 and the development of a clear plan to provide opportunity and access for all businesses in the city.

Sonji Rollins Tucker, SRT Wealth Design Group, spoke in support of RES. 2025-R040 and stated that the acceptance of the disparity study will help establish Richmond as a forward-thinking city that values inclusion and opportunity for all.

Councilor Stephanie Lynch stated her support for the motion to continue ORD. 2025-207 and ORD. 2025-208 to October 14, 2025, that was approved earlier in the meeting.

Several Councilmembers thanked those in attendance from Virginia Union University for participating in the legislative process and commended their civic engagement.

All members of Council requested to be added as co-patrons to ORD. 2025-173.

President Cynthia Newbille requested to be added as a co-patron to RES. 2025-R040.

There was no further discussion, and the Consent Agenda was unanimously adopted.

The Regular Agenda

The following ordinance was considered:

33. ORD. 2025-100 To amend City Code § 12-12, concerning the form of the budget submitted to Council, to require publication of a side-by-side comparison with the mayor's proposed budget submission with agency-level budget request documents and to amend ch. 12, art. I of the City Code by adding therein a new section 12-25, concerning publication of agency-level budget requests, for the purpose of requiring submission of agency-level budget request documents.

This ordinance was adopted.

Councilor Stephanie Lynch provided an overview of the proposed ordinance and explained the city budget process compared to the State.

Public Hearing

There were no public hearing speakers.

Councilor Kenya Gibson expressed her support for the proposed ordinance and the deeper understanding of the needs of each department it will provide.

Councilor Andrew Breton stated that the proposed ordinance would help ensure that the mayor's budget is aligned with the goals of City Council, as well as provide a helpful tool for fulfilling Council's obligation to validate the budget.

Councilor Ellen Robertson stated that the budget task force, after discussions with city administration, felt that administration needs to have the benefits of their "working papers" to make collective decisions about the budget regarding departmental requests.

Councilor Reva Trammell expressed support for the proposed ordinance and requested to be added as a co-patron.

Vice President Jordan stated that she hopes the level of transparency the proposed ordinance would provide will help underscore why keeping the tax rate at $1.20 is necessary.

Chief Administrative Officer Odie Donald II stated that the proposed ordinance would hinder the ability of administration to improve operations in alignment with the goals of Council.

President Cynthia Newbille clarified that the recommendation of the Budget Review Task Force was to not move forward with the proposed ordinance, which Councilor Robertson confirmed.

There were no further comments or discussions, and ORD. 2025-100 was adopted: Ayes 7, Breton, Gibson, Jones, Lynch, Trammell, Abubaker, Jordan. Noes 2, Robertson, Newbille.
