Being the Bilingual Parent and Community Liaison of George Wythe High School, Richmond Public Schools, for the past four years has been most rewarding. I have worked very closely with parents and students from several different Central American counties. This work creates opportunities for outreach to many local resources such as Communities In Schools, LULAC, Richmond Friends of the Homeless, Sacred Heart Community Outreach Services, Southside Community Services, STEM Latino and the Mayor's Youth Academy, just to name a few. Building relationships with these programs on behalf of our Richmond youth has been challenging and very rewarding. I continue to work as a mentor for our students in striving for excellence and leadership.
