

Awards/Recognitions Ceremony Docket

For Official Presentation: Monday, 24 April 2023 Draft Updated 4.21.2023/1320 hrs/srs

Richmond City Council recognizes/celebrates the following:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 | Richmond Older Residents Month Richmond City Council is proud to have previously proclaimed and permanently established the upcoming month of May as Richmond Older Residents Month for Richmond's older residents and the community to celebrate. Richmond is pleased to have thousands of fellow residents living in our city who are aged 55 and older. Older residents help drive our city forward and sustain it with their wealth of knowledge, experience, and abilities, which are critical to the continuing success of our community. Richmond City Council thanks Richmond's older residents for continuing to help make our city an even better place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit, and enjoy family. Guest Amy Strite, Director, Senior Connections, Capital Area Agency on Aging   |
| 2 | COUNCIL JOINT RECOGNITION WITH MAYOR Richmond Office of Animal Care and Control (RACC) Richmond City Council and Mayor Levar Stoney recognize and praise the outstanding work of the Richmond Office of Animal Care and Control (RACC) for its ongoing dedication on behalf of our community. Celebrated earlier this month during National Animal Control Officers Appreciation Week, RACC staff provide a compassionate human connection, helping hand, and caring heart on behalf of abused and lost pets and help ensure that all animals are properly being cared for in our city. RACC takes in every animal in need in Richmond, including those who are severely injured or behaviorally unsound. Each year, RACC provides care and humane treatment for more than 3,000 injured, lost, stray, abandoned, sick, abused, relinquished, and neglected animals at its shelter, located at 1600 Chamberlayne Avenue. RACC also provides adoption services helping find homes for animals in need of owners; enforces animal protection laws and investigates animal cruelty; and, delivers rescue services and pet education programs. Richmond City Council and Mayor Stoney recognize and praise the staff of Richmond Office of Animal Care and Control and thank them for continuing to help make our city an even better and more animal friendly place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit, and enjoy family. Guest Richmond Office of Animal Care and Control |

Continued: Awards & Proclamations on behalf of the of Richmond City Council

Richmond City Council recognizes/celebrates the following:

- 1 Richmond Administrative Professionals Week and Richmond Administrative Professionals Day

Richmond City Council recognizes, honors, and celebrates the critical importance and tremendous service provided by Administrative Professionals.

Council is proud to have previously proclaimed Richmond Administrative Professionals Week and Richmond Administrative Professionals Day during the month of April for offices and the community to celebrate.

Administrative Professionals make office management and its success possible and serve as the trusted bond, frontline, and backbone of every department, organization, and agency.

Encompassing a wide variety of roles, responsibilities, and organizational and working titles, Administrative Professionals include such positions known as Executive Assistant, Office Manager, Clerk, Administrator, Project Management Analyst, Administrative Assistant, Receptionist, and Administrative Support Professional, just to name a few.

Promoting the importance of Administrative Professionals throughout the nation, the International Association of Professionals established what is now known as Administrative Professionals Week in 1952.

Council invites all offices to observe and enjoy the last full work week of April as Richmond Administrative Professionals Week and the Wednesday within that week as Richmond Administrative Professionals Day.

Richmond City Council recognizes, honors, and celebrates the critical work of Administrative Professionals and thanks them for their dedication, commitment, and service that helps make our city an even better place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit, and enjoy family.

Awards & Proclamations on behalf of Richmond City Council

#	TITLE/RECIPIENT/SPEAKER	TYPE	SUMMARY/NARRATIVE	MAIN PRESENTER
---	-------------------------	------	-------------------	----------------

There are no Richmond City Council Formal Proclamations or Awards scheduled for this meeting.