Citizen Comment

CD.2024.033 February 26, 2024 Citizen Comment Period Speakers List

Jeremy Lazarus addressed Council and provided information regarding a Richmond Free Press article he authored addressing the city's fiscal year 2023-2024 budget surplus. Jeremy Lazarus also addressed data that he believed confirmed his reporting.

Lauren Toiaivao, Here 4 the Kids member, addressed Council and requested that it introduce and adopt a resolution stating support for a ceasefire in Gaza. Lauren Toiaivao stated that she believed the matter was a local issue as her tax dollars were being used to support more violence in the conflict.

Danielle DiBlasio, Virginia Defender Newspaper volunteer, addressed Council and requested that members patron a resolution supporting a ceasefire in Gaza. Danielle DiBlasio stated that she did not believe the request was a partisan issue, and that she believed Council should support justice.

Sterling Rives addressed Council and requested that Council adopt a resolution to call on American leaders to support a ceasefire in Gaza. Sterling Rives stated he believed that Richmond City had moved on from its past, and that the next step was to support the safety and humanity of individuals located in Gaza.

William Muth addressed Council and requested that Council adopt a resolution requesting an immediate ceasefire in Gaza. Mr. Muth stated his concerns about how children in Gaza are being impacted by the conflict.

Tara Morand addressed Council and stated she believed that Richmond City has previously been on the wrong side of history, but that now it can be a leader on human rights by requesting a ceasefire in Gaza.

Yael Levin addressed Council and stated that she was concerned for the safety of the Richmond Jewish community. Yael Levin also stated that she believed the request for a resolution for a ceasefire in Gaza would distract Council from its duty to address local issues impacting city residents.

Public Hearing

Doug White, Gather Workspaces Owner and Chief Executive Officer, spoke in opposition to ORD. 2024-016, and stated the increase of operational hours of Ember Music Hall would negatively impact Gather Workspaces. Mr. White also stated that the loud music from Ember Music Hall makes it difficult for customers to use Gather facilities. Mr. White requested that the proposed ordinance be amended to require a certain decibel level during hours of operation.

Autumn Davis spoke in opposition of ORD. 2024-020, and stated that the proposed development would have a negative impact on current residents in the area. Ms. Davis requested a pause on consideration of the ordinance to allow more analysis and resident dialogue about the development. Ms. Davis also stated she believed the area surrounding the proposed development should be declared an historic district.

Petra Tuzun spoke in opposition of ORD. 2024-020, and stated her concerns that the proposed development would erase an historic area of the city.

Cassie Knight spoke in opposition of ORD. 2024-020, and stated that local tenants and local civic associations were not aware of the special use permit request. Ms. Knight also stated that the proposed 27 parking spots was not acceptable to surrounding residents. Ms. Knight also provided a copy of a petition regarding ORD. 2024-020.

A copy of the material provided has been filed.

Kenneth Reid spoke in opposition of ORD. 2024-020, and stated that current long-term residents were worried that history would be erased if the proposed development was approved. Mr. Reid also stated the proposed units should not be considered affordable housing.

Jennifer Yox spoke in opposition of ORD. 2024-020, and stated her concerns that she did not believe the proposed ordinance would require that affordable housing in the building be permanent. Jennifer Yox also stated Council should be aware of the need for more affordable housing when considering special use permits.

Duke Dodson, Dodson Companies Founder and Chief Executive Officer, spoke in support of ORD. 2024-016, and stated that he was the owner of the building referenced in ORD. 2024-016, where Ember Music Hall was located. Mr. Dodson also stated he believed the location was ideal for a music establishment.

Neal Patel, Ember Music Hall Owner, spoke in support of ORD. 2024-016, and stated that Ember Music Hall would adhere to the city's sound ordinance decibel requirements.
