CD.2026.089 March 23, 2026 Budget Public Hearing Speakers List

Cynthia Robinson, Richmond Virtual Academy (RVA) President, spoke in support of funding for Richmond Public Schools (RPS) and keeping RVA running for K-12 students.

Jacqueline Johnson Wilson, parent of RVA student, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA, noting that many virtual academy students do not have another option for education.

Dee Winston, parent of RVA student, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA, noting that the virtual academy is not a separate entity from RPS.

Sherlita Salley, parent of RVA student, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA and stated that her child has special needs that make in-person instruction a safety issue.

Sandra Portee, RVA Virtual Learning Coordinator, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA and stated that homebound services cannot replace the virtual academy as they are temporary services.

Tomorrow Lofton-Pickens, RVA Instructional Compliance Coordinator, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA, stating that it is a separate school from RPS.

Kindy Anderson spoke in opposition to Richmond's response to federal budget cuts for immigration and housing, as well as the city's use of FLOCK security cameras.

Narissa Rahaman, Equality Virginia Executive Director, spoke in opposition to any funding cuts for healthcare.

Tyrone Davis spoke in support of regular cost of living adjustments for retirees.

Emma Clark, Richmond Education Association Organizer and former RPS teacher, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA.

Emily Grimes spoke in opposition to the city's use of FLOCK cameras and noted the potential for misuse of the data they collect.

Councilor Nicole Jones arrived and was seated.

Felicia Boney, Service Employees International Union 32 BJ member, spoke in support of funding for the city's collective bargaining agreements and a joint compensation study.

Lisa Delao, Huguenot High School Teacher and Richmond Education Association member, spoke in support of fully funding RPS and in opposition to the city's contract with FLOCK security.

Candace Benn, RVA School Councilor, spoke in support of continued funding for RVA and fully funding RPS.

Egon Shroud, Westover Hills Elementary teacher, spoke in support of full funding for RPS, contingent on an external audit of the RPS budget to address the top-heavy organizational structure.

Aurora Britt spoke in opposition to the city's contract with FLOCK security.

Beth Hosef, RPS teacher, asked that Council support the RPS budget proposed by Superintendent Jason Kamras.

Michael Rafferty spoke in opposition to the city's contract with FLOCK security.

Madeline McElgunn spoke in support of fulfilling the full budget request for RPS.

Councilor Nicole Jones moved to continue all pending budget related ordinances to the Monday, April 13, Council meeting, which was seconded and unanimously approved.

City Clerk Candice Reid stated that Consent Agenda Item 2, ORD. 2026-003 required seven votes to be adopted, and since it only received six affirmative votes, it was not adopted.

Vice President Katherine Jordan asked if Consent Agenda Item 2 might be reconsidered now that Councilor Jones was present.

Ms. Reid stated that she would defer to the City Attorney regarding the procedure for making a motion to reconsider without a prevailing side on the original vote, as the only non-affirmative vote was an abstention and any motion to reconsider must be made by a member on the prevailing side.

City Attorney Laura Drewry stated that to reconsider a motion without a clear prevailing side, a motion to suspend Rule V(G) of Council's Rules of Procedure would first need to be approved before a motion could be made to reconsider the item.

Vice President Katherine Jordan moved to suspend Rule V(G) of Council's Rules of Procedure and to reconsider Item 2, ORD. 2026-003, which was seconded and approved: Ayes 7, Breton, Jones, Robertson, Trammell, Abubaker, Jordan, Newbille. Noes 0. Abstentions 1, Gibson.

The following ordinance was reconsidered:
