THROUGH: Odie Donald II, Chief Administrative Officer

THROUGH: Tanikia Jackson, DCA for Finance and Administration

THROUGH: Letitia Shelton, Director of Finance

RE: Lease Agreement between the City of Richmond and Virginia Community Voice

ORD. OR RES. No. _____

PURPOSE: To authorize the Chief Administrative Officer, for and behalf of the City of Richmond, to execute a Lease Agreement between the City of Richmond, as landlord, and Virginia Community Voice, as tenant, for the purpose of allowing Virginia Community Voice, to lease certain real property commonly known as the old T.B. Smith Center, located at 2015 Ruffin Road. (8th District)

BACKGROUND: The Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Facilities (PRCF) and Virginia Community Voice (VACV) have fostered a strong collaborative relationship to provide services to the community. VACV, established in 2019, has built a strong reputation for equipping historically marginalized communities to shape their own futures while preparing institutions to respond more equitably. Recognized by leaders such as the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and Representative Jennifer McClellan for advancing environmental justice and equitable access to green spaces, VACV now endeavors to expand its impact through the leased space at the old TB Smith building.

The organization plans to use this space to host programs that strengthen neighborhood leadership, support community healing, and advance equity through initiatives like RVA Thrives and the Community Voice Blueprint. These programs engage residents in identifying priorities such as housing, climate resilience, and youth leadership, while also training institutions in effective, inclusive engagement practices. VACV's work in the space will also serve as a foundation for its broader vision of the South Richmond Center for Rest & Healing, a community hub designed to address health, wellness, and resilience needs in Southside neighborhoods. This effort is made possible through the continued partnership with PRCF, whose shared commitment to equitable community investment ensures that the old TB Smith site will become a vital resource for empowerment, healing, and neighborhood-driven solutions.

The lease agreement establishes a one-year term, with the City retaining the right to terminate at any time with 30 days' notice, allowing flexibility to adjust to changing priorities. The tenant is responsible for routine maintenance, landscaping, repairs for any damages they cause, and obtaining all required permits and insurance, thereby minimizing the City's operational responsibilities. Any improvements, signage, or landscaping must receive City approval, and the property must be used exclusively for approved nonprofit purposes to ensure it continues to serve the public good.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT: After introduction, the proposed ordinance will be referred to future Land Use, Housing and Transportation Standing Committee meeting for discussion, where the public is encouraged to attend to provide comments. After the committee's recommendation to the City Council, Council will hold a public hearing regarding the proposed ordinance.

STRATEGIC INITIATIVES AND OTHER GOVERNMENTAL: None.

CONSIDERATION BY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES: N/A.

8. No Holdover. Tenant shall not hold over upon termination or expiration of this Agreement. If Tenant fails to vacate the Property upon such termination or expiration, such failure shall not confer to Tenant any rights to occupy the Property or further tenancy, regardless of the acts or omissions of Landlord or any of Landlord's employees or agents, including but not limited to Landlord's failure to evict Tenant from the Property. If Tenant holds over in violation of this Section, Tenant shall be deemed to be a month-to-month tenant. The provisions of this Section shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Laws" means i) all applicable laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, directives, covenants, easements, and zoning and land use regulations; and ii) all restrictions of record, permits, and building codes, now in effect or which may hereafter come into effect. No representation or warranty is made by the City as to any particular condition, absence of hazardous or toxic substances, absences of faults, flooding, or compliance with Laws, without limitation, those relating to health, safety, and the environment. Tenant is not relying, and will not later rely, upon any representations and warranties made by Landlord, oral or written, or anyone acting or claiming to act, by, through or under or on the Landlord's behalf concerning the Property. The Landlord shall not be responsible to Tenant for the correction of any violations of any Laws due to the presence of any hazardous substances on the Property. In the event that either the Landlord or the Tenant becomes aware of any presence of hazardous substances on the Property in violation of law, this Agreement shall become null and void immediately upon the written election of either Party, and in such event, Tenant agrees to remove any and all of its other personal property and vacate the Property immediately. This Section 11 shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

12. Environmental. Tenant shall not, either with or without negligence, cause or permit the use, storage, generation, escape, disposal or release of any "Hazardous Substances and Wastes" within, over or under the Property in any manner not sanctioned by the Laws. For purposes of the foregoing, "Hazardous Substances and Wastes" means those hazardous substances and hazardous wastes as defined in the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., and the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. §§9601 et seq., respectively, and in any regulations promulgated thereto.

To the extent required by the Code of Virginia and other applicable Virginia laws and regulations, Workers' Compensation insurance in an amount no less than one hundred-thousand dollars ($100,000), or in amounts not less than the minimum required by the Virginia Code and other applicable law, rules, and regulations;

d. Employer's Liability insurance with limits of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) each accident/disease /policy limit; and

f. Subrogation against the City shall be waived, except for Workers Compensation and Professional Liability.

g. The City and its officers, employees, agents and volunteer shall be listed as an additional insured, except for Workers Compensation and Professional Liability.

h. All such policies shall be issued by companies duly authorized or permitted to conduct business in the Commonwealth of Virginia and having a Best's Key Rating of at least A: VI. On or before the Effective Date, prior to the expiration date of any such policy throughout the Term, and anytime upon written request of Landlord, Tenant shall provide a certificate(s) of insurance demonstrating that Tenant is maintaining the insurance coverages required pursuant to this Section. All policies maintained by Tenant hereunder shall provide, by endorsement or otherwise, that written notice shall be given to Landlord before such policy may be cancelled, non-renewed or changed to reduce the insurance coverage provided thereby.

i. Tenant, for itself and on behalf of the Tenant Parties assumes, voluntarily and without limitation, all risks relating to this Agreement, including without limitation, the condition of the Property, and its suitability and fitness for the Permitted Use, and takes full responsibility and waives any claims for personal injury, sickness, disease or death or damage to real and personal property associated with access of the Property and the Permitted Use in accordance with this Agreement. Tenant, for itself and on behalf of the Tenant Parties, expressly waives all claims for any personal injury, sickness, disease or death or damages of any kind, sustained by Tenant or the Tenant Parties against the Landlord arising from, relating to or associated with this Agreement, the Property, either or both. To the extent permitted under applicable law, Tenant, for itself and the Tenant Parties, fully releases and forever discharges from, and covenants not to sue the Landlord for any and all actions, causes of action, suits, proceedings, debts, dues, contracts, judgments, attorneys' fees, costs of litigation, liabilities, damages, claims and demands whatsoever, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, in law or equity, which Tenant or the Tenant Parties had, now has, or could, shall or might have had, against the Landlord relating to, arising from or associated with access to the Property, any other personal property of Tenant, this Agreement, and the Permitted Use. Nothing herein shall be construed as an agreement by the Landlord to indemnify Tenant or the Tenant Parties.

j. Tenant shall indemnify, keep and hold Landlord free and harmless from liability on account of injury or damage to Tenant and others in person or property growing out of this Agreement and Tenant's use and occupancy of the Property. If suit shall be brought against Landlord relating to or arising from this Agreement, either independently or jointly with the Tenant or on account thereof, Tenant will defend Landlord in any such suit; if a final judgment is obtained against Landlord, either independently or jointly with Tenant, Tenant will pay such judgment with all costs and hold Landlord harmless therefrom.

14. Casualty & Condemnation. If the whole or any substantial part of the Property or the Property, or material access thereto, is condemned or sold under threat of condemnation, or damaged by fire or other casualty, either Party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other given within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of such condemnation or casualty, and, in the case of a termination resulting from a condemnation, Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord or the condemning authority to any portion of the award in condemnation for the value of any unexpired term of this Agreement or otherwise.

15. Compliance with Laws; Permits. Tenant shall, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, (i) comply with all applicable Laws relating to Tenant's use of the Property, and (ii) obtain and maintain all permits, approvals and licenses required to conduct the Permitted Use at the Property.

16. Liens. Tenant shall not encumber the Property with any materialmen's or mechanic's lien, nor shall Tenant suffer or permit any such lien to exist. Should any such lien hereafter be filed as a result of Tenant's actions or failure to act, Tenant shall, at its sole cost, within thirty (30) days after Tenant receives written notice of the filing of such lien, discharge such lien or post a bond in the amount of such lien. This Section will survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement.

17. Tenant Default & Landlord Remedies.

a. The occurrence of any of the following events shall constitute a default by Tenant under this Agreement (each, a "Tenant Default"):

i. Tenant shall fail to pay when or before due any sum of money becoming owing to Landlord under this Agreement, and such failure shall continue for a period of ten business (10) days after written notice thereof to Tenant;

ii. Tenant shall fail to comply with any term, provision or covenant of this Agreement, or breach any representation hereunder, other than by failing to pay when or before due any sum of money, and shall not cure such failure or breach within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof to Tenant, or if such failure or breach is not susceptible to cure within such thirty (30) day period, then Tenant shall have such longer period as is reasonably necessary to cure not to exceed ninety (90) days so long as Tenant has commenced to cure within the initial thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently pursues such cure to completion; or

iii. Tenant shall dissolve its corporate existence or fall out of good standing, or declare bankruptcy or take a similar debtor protection measure.

b. In the event of a Tenant Default or in the event of a failure of Tenant to comply with any term, provision or covenant of this Agreement that threatens life or property (an “Emergency Condition”), Landlord may, at its option but without obligation to do so, perform Tenant's duty or obligation on Tenant's behalf (and, in the case of an Emergency Condition, prior to the expiration of any applicable notice and cure period to which Tenant may otherwise be entitled under this Agreement), and the costs and expenses of any such performance by Landlord shall be due and payable by Tenant within thirty (30) days after receipt of a written invoice therefor from Landlord, together with reasonable supporting documentation for such costs and expenses included in such invoice. This paragraph will survive termination of this Agreement. Upon the occurrence of any Tenant Default by Tenant, Landlord may sue for injunctive relief or to recover damages for any loss resulting from the Tenant Default, and Landlord, without limiting the foregoing, may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to Tenant. For the avoidance of doubt, Landlord acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of a Tenant Default by Tenant under this Agreement, Landlord shall have no right to pursue a claim for consequential or punitive damages, or both, against Tenant.

18. Landlord Default & Tenant Remedies. It shall be a default of Landlord under this Agreement (a “Landlord Default”) if any covenant or obligation required to be performed or observed by Landlord under this Agreement is not so performed or observed for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Tenant; provided, however, that if the failure is of such a nature that the same cannot reasonably be performed within said thirty (30) day period, such Landlord Default shall be deemed to have been cured if Landlord commences cure within said initial thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently pursues such cure to completion within a reasonable period of time not to exceed ninety (90) days. Upon the occurrence of any Landlord Default, Tenant may sue for injunctive relief or to recover damages for any loss resulting from the Landlord Default, and Tenant, without limiting the foregoing, may terminate this Lease upon written notice to Landlord. For the avoidance of doubt, Tenant acknowledges and agrees that, in the event of a Landlord Default under this Agreement, Tenant shall have no right to pursue a claim for consequential or punitive damages, or both, against Landlord.

a. Force Majeure. Except for payment of any sums due under this Lease, whenever the performance of a Party is delayed by reason of an act of God, including, but not limited to, wind, lightning, rain, ice, earthquake, floods, or rising water, or by aircraft or vehicle damage, or by other reason out of the reasonable control of such Party, such delay in performance shall toll any cure period for a Tenant Default or a Landlord Default, as applicable, under this Agreement.

b. Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the leasing of the Property by Landlord to Tenant and supersedes any prior understandings and written or oral agreements between them respecting this subject matter. There are no representations, agreements, arrangements, or understandings, oral or written, between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not fully expressed in this Agreement. This Agreement may be amended, modified and supplemented only by the written consent of both Parties preceded by all formalities required as prerequisites to the signature by each Party to this Agreement. If any provision herein is invalid, it shall be considered deleted from this Agreement and shall not invalidate the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

c. No Waiver. The failure of either of the Parties to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the right to insist upon strict performance of such provision or of any other provision of this Agreement at any time. Waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall not constitute waiver of a subsequent breach.

d. Governing Law & Forum Choice. All issues and questions concerning the construction, enforcement, interpretation and validity of this Agreement, or the rights and obligations of the Parties in connection with this Agreement, shall be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of laws rules or provisions, whether of the Commonwealth of Virginia or any other jurisdiction, that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Any and all disputes, claims and causes of action arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any performances made hereunder, shall be brought, and any judicial proceeding shall take place, only in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, Virginia.

e. Assignment; Sublease; Binding Effect. Tenant may neither sell, assign, sublease, license, nor otherwise transfer this Agreement or any interest, directly or indirectly herein, or permit occupancy of the Property, without the prior written consent of Landlord, in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion. The provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon Landlord and Tenant and their respective successors and assigns (but this Agreement shall only inure to the benefit of such successors and assignees of Tenant has Landlord has expressly approved as required by the terms of this Agreement).

f. Notices. Each party shall give any notice required or permitted to be given under this Agreement in writing and such notice shall be delivered by certified mail,
