Public Comment

CD.2025.034 February 10, 2025 Public Comment Period Speakers List

Patrick Canteros addressed Council and stated his concerns about the deterioration of housing in the city. Mr. Canteros also stated that the city needed to ensure that affordable housing developers are held accountable to construct and maintain quality inventory for affordable housing in the city. Mr. Canteros further stated his support for the establishment of a rental inspection district.

Alonzo Nicholson addressed Council and informed members of his experience as a former city employee. Mr. Nicholson stated that he was allegedly retaliated against by his employer, the city, for suggesting methods to improve worker safety and lessen harmful effects to the environment. Mr. Nicholson also stated that the hostile work environment forced him to end his employment with the city.

Peter Finn, New Virginia Majority African American Chapter Lead Organizer, addressed Council and stated it was important that the city allocate 9 million dollars to the Family Crisis Fund. Mr. Finn also stated that the Family Crisis Fund would help assist families avoid eviction and remain in stable housing.

Jasmine Howell addressed Council and stated her concerns about the living conditions for residents at Bacon Retirement Community facility. Ms. Howell provided additional concerns about the safety of residents and her knowledge of alleged retaliation by the property management company against residents that reported negative information about the facility.
