RE: To designate the 2800 Block of Fendall Avenue in honor of Rev. A. Lincoln James, Jr.

CNL-2026-0057

PURPOSE: To designate the 2800 Block of Fendall Avenue in honor of Reverend. A. Lincoln James, Jr.

BACKGROUND: Honorary street naming is reserved for individuals whose lives reflect sustained, meaningful contributions to the City of Richmond, and Reverend Dr. A. Lincoln James, Jr. exemplified that standard through decades of spiritual leadership, civic service, mentorship, and community investment in Richmond. Reverend James served as Pastor of Trinity Baptist Church for more than 45 years and became one of the most respected and influential faith leaders in the Richmond region and throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Reverend James devoted his life to pastoral leadership, theological education, and community transformation beginning in 1967, serving congregations in Virginia before becoming the longest-serving pastor of Trinity Baptist Church in Richmond. Under his leadership, Trinity Baptist Church expanded its ministries, increased community outreach, and became the first Black Baptist church in Richmond to televise its services. The church flourished to more than 700 active members and sustained ministries focused on worship, service, and community impact.

Rev. James also helped establish the Trinity Family Life Center, extending the church's mission beyond the pulpit to provide programs focused on family strengthening, youth development, education, and community stability. The Center became nationally recognized for effective faith-based approaches to supporting children and families. Congressman Bobby Scott noted that Rev. James "improved the Richmond region through his leadership as President of the Virginia Baptist State Convention, his service on the Virginia Parole Board, his work as a seminar professor and his vision as the driving force in the creation of the Trinity Family Life Center, which provides essential services to thousands of young people every year.”

Beyond his pastoral ministry, Reverend James served in numerous civic and educational leadership roles, including as President of the Virginia Baptist State Convention, Vice President and national officer of the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education, Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Richmond Virginia Seminary, and member of the Board of Visitors at the University of Lynchburg and Virginia Union University School of Theology. He was also widely recognized as a mentor to clergy, elected officials, and generations of Richmond residents. Following his passing in December 2025, hundreds gathered at Trinity Baptist Church to celebrate his life and legacy, with community leaders describing him as a transformational figure in Richmond’s civic and spiritual life.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT: This nomination is brought forward by Trinity Baptist Church, reflecting broad appreciation for his decades of service to the Richmond community and his lasting impact on generations of residents and families.

ALIGNMENT WITH STRATEGIC INITIATIVES: This amendment directly advances key goals within the City of Richmond’s Mayoral Action Plan (MAP), which translates the Mayor’s seven pillars for a thriving Richmond into measurable goals and outcomes across city policy areas.

A City That Cares for People

Goal A: Improve quality of life outcomes for Richmond residents by strengthening neighborhoods, supporting families, and expanding community opportunity. Rev. James’ leadership through Trinity Baptist Church and the Trinity Family Life Center directly supported youth development, family stability, educational advancement, and community wellness for thousands of Richmond residents.

A City That Tells its Stories

Goal C: Share and document Richmond’s rich cultural history. This honorary naming recognizes the enduring contributions of one of Richmond’s most influential faith and civic leaders and preserves the legacy of Black church leadership as a foundational part of Richmond’s social, cultural, and civic history.

FISCAL IMPACT: DPW estimates that each honorary street sign costs approximately $800 for manufacturing, installation, and some contingency although actual costs may vary. Funds are sufficient in the agency's FY26 operating budget to cover adoption of this ordinance.

DESIRED EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon adoption.

Qualifications:

Describe in detail the Nominee's historical or cultural significance, including any significant contributions to the community and City of Richmond:

In 1967, Dr. James devoted his life to pastoral leadership, theological education, and community transformation. His ministry journey included service as Youth Minister at Greater Bethesda Baptist Church in Chicago and pastorates at Calvary Baptist Church (Kilmarnock, VA), Pleasant Grove (Prince George) and Tabernacle Baptist Church (Petersburg, VA), before becoming the longest-serving pastor of Trinity Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, where he faithfully shepherded the congregation for more than 45 years.

Dr. James led Trinity Baptist Church to a historic milestone with the licensing of the first female minister and the ordination of its first female deacons in the church's history. A true trailblazer and visionary, Dr. James expanded the church's reach beyond its walls, leading Trinity to broadcast its worship services on the radio and later becoming the first Black Baptist church in Richmond to televise its services. Under his faithful and forward-thinking leadership, Trinity Baptist Church flourished, growing to more than 700 active members today and sustaining over 30 ministries dedicated to worship, service, and community impact,

Under his leadership and vision, Trinity Baptist Church established the Trinity Family Life Center, extending the church's mission beyond the pulpit to address the holistic needs of families and communities. The Center developed comprehensive programs focused on family strengthening, youth development, education, and community stability. Trinity Family Life Center became a national model for Casey Family Programs, recognized for its effective faith-based approach to strengthening families and improving outcomes for children and youth. This national recognition affirmed Dr. James's belief that faith institutions can play a critical role in building resilient families and thriving communities.

Beyond the pulpit, Dr. James was a respected civic and denominational leader. Never forsaking his call as a Christian leader, he served as President of the Virginia Baptist State Convention, Vice President and national officer of the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education, Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Richmond Virginia Seminary, a board member of the University of Lynchburg, and Virginia Union University School of Theology - adjunct professor teaching pastoral care. As a civic leader, Dr. James served as President of the Southside and Central Virginia Banking Consortium, on the Virginia Parole Board, and he was often called upon to lead prayers for local and state legislative bodies. His life and service were recognized nationally, including acknowledgment in the U.S. Congressional Record. His most recent award was the Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award given by President Joe Biden. In recognition of his enduring impact, he received an Honorary Doctor of Divinity from McKinley Theological Seminary and an Honorary Doctor of Humanities from Baltimore Seminary and College.
