This Section 10.0 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

11.0 Holdover. Tenant shall have no right to retain possession of the Leased Premises or any part thereof beyond the expiration or termination of this Agreement, and any such instance shall be deemed a "holdover." Tenant's removal of its property from the Leased Premises in compliance with Section 10.0 above shall not be deemed a holdover. In the event of holdover, (i) Tenant shall vacate upon notice from Landlord; (ii) within ten (10) Days from receipt of written demand from Landlord, Tenant shall pay to Landlord 150% of the Rental Fee on a daily pro rata basis for each Day of holdover; (iii) a periodic tenancy shall not be deemed created regardless of the actions or lack thereof of Tenant or Landlord, including, but not limited to, Tenant's possession of the Leased Premises and payment to Landlord, and Landlord's acceptance of payment and failure to evict Tenant from the Leased Premises. Tenant's breach of any term of this Section 11.0 shall immediately constitute a default under this Agreement, notwithstanding the cure periods set forth in Section 21.0 below. At Landlord's option, this Agreement may be subordinate to any mortgage by Landlord which may now or hereafter affect all of the Property, including the Leased Premises, provided that any such mortgage shall recognize the validity of this Agreement in the event of foreclosure of Landlord's interest and also recognize Tenant's right to remain in possession and have access to the Leased Premises. Tenant shall attorn to such mortgagee or other party and recognize the same as Landlord hereunder, provided that such mortgagee or other party agrees not to disturb Tenant's interest in the Leased Premises arising from this Agreement so long as Tenant continues to perform its obligations according to the terms of this Agreement. Tenant shall execute any instruments that may reasonably be required to give effect to this subordination clause.

At any time during the Term, with seven (7) days prior notice and accompanied by a representative of Tenant, Landlord and any representative of Landlord's choosing shall have the right to enter the Leased Premises to inspect the Leased Premises to ensure compliance with the terms of this Agreement; to conduct any repair, improvement, or maintenance; to perform any obligation of Tenant under this Agreement in accordance with Section 21.1 below; and for any other lawful reason. Notwithstanding Tenant's right to inspect the Leased Premises, Landlord shall have no obligation to do so.

18.0 Indemnification.

18.1 Scope of Indemnity. Tenant agrees to indemnify the Indemnified Parties against any liability and Indemnifiable Loss arising out of any actual or threatened Proceeding relating to, resulting from, or arising out of this Agreement, including but not limited to Tenant's and the Tenant Parties' (i) use or occupation of, or presence upon, the Leased Premises or the Access Route, and (ii) a breach of this Agreement, except that Tenant shall not be obligated to indemnify an Indemnified Party to the extent that an Indemnifiable Loss suffered by any Indemnified Party is determined by a final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to have arisen solely from such Indemnified Party's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Tenant shall remit payment for any Indemnifiable Loss within fifteen (15) Days following demand from any Indemnified Party therefor. Nothing in this Section 18.0 may be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity granted to Landlord by the Commonwealth of Virginia Constitution, statutes, and applicable case law.

18.2 Notice of Proceeding; Defense of Proceeding. If any Proceeding is brought against any Indemnified Party by reason of any occurrence for which Tenant is obliged to indemnify such Indemnified Party, such Indemnified Party will promptly notify Tenant of such Proceeding. Tenant, upon the request of such Indemnified Party, shall resist and defend such Proceeding at Tenant's sole expense, or cause the same to be resisted and defended by counsel designated by Tenant and approved by such Indemnified Party in writing. Landlord shall be entitled to participate in such defense and any related compromise or settlement and to use counsel of its selection, in its sole discretion, and at Tenant's expense, if Landlord reasonably determines, after a reasonable period of time, that Tenant has failed to take reasonable and appropriate action to defend, compromise, or settle such Proceeding. No compromise or settlement by Tenant under this Section 18 may require Landlord to alter any policy or practice of Landlord as a result thereof. The Indemnified Parties shall cooperate with Tenant in the defense of any matters for which Tenant is required.

19.0 Insurance. Beginning on the Effective Date and for so long as any property of Tenant or the Tenant Parties remains on the Property, Tenant shall, at its own expense, maintain liability insurance policies in a form reasonably acceptable to Landlord. These policies shall include, but need not be limited to the following:

- (i) Commercial General Liability insurance with limits of two million dollars ($2,000,000) per occurrence for bodily injury and property damage and two million dollars ($2,000,000) general aggregate;
- (ii) Commercial Automobile Liability Insurance in an amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000) combined single limit for each accident for bodily injury and property damage;

- (iii) Workers' Compensation insurance meeting all statutory requirements of the Commonwealth of Virginia;
- (iv) Employer's Liability insurance with limits of one million dollars ($1,000,000) each accident/disease/policy limit; and
- (v) Umbrella Liability insurance with limits of not less than two million dollars ($2,000,000) per occurrence and two million dollars ($2,000,000) aggregate.

All such policies shall (a) be issued by companies duly authorized or permitted to conduct business in the Commonwealth of Virginia and having a Best's Key Rating of at least A-: VII, (b) with the exception of Workers Compensation and Employer's Liability policies, shall be endorsed to include the Indemnified Parties as additional insured for purposes of this Agreement, (c) be primary to any insurance coverage any of the Indemnified Parties may possess, and (d) be written to include a waiver of subrogation against each of the Indemnified Parties.

Tenant shall additionally meet the following requirements:

- (i) Tenant shall ensure the Tenant Parties obtain and maintain insurance coverage that meets or exceeds the insurance coverage required of Tenant; Landlord must authorize any exceptions in writing before any excepted Tenant Party enters the Property for purposes of this Agreement;
- (ii) Tenant shall submit certificates of insurance to Landlord for all insurance policies required by this Section 19.0, including certificates of insurance for all Tenant Parties, and including additional insured and waiver of subrogation endorsements, (a) at least thirty (30) Days prior to both the commencement of any work for purposes of this Agreement and the entry of Tenant or any of the Tenant Parties upon the Premises, (b) upon renewal of each insurance policy required by this Section 19.0, and (c) upon request by Landlord.
- (iii) Landlord shall be provided with at least thirty (30) Days prior written notice of the cancellation, termination, non-renewal, or reduction in coverage of any insurance policy required by this Agreement if, as a result of such change in coverage, the insurance requirements set forth in this Section 19.0 are not met.

The limits of insurance required by this Section 19.0 shall in no event limit the liability obligations of Tenant under this Agreement.

The foregoing limits of insurance shall not prohibit Tenant from obtaining a liability insurance policy or policies in excess of such limits.

This Section 19.0 shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

20.0 Limitation of Liability.

20.1 Consequential Loss Waiver. As a material part of the consideration for this Agreement, and notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, neither Landlord nor Tenant shall be liable for, and each Party hereby waives any claims against the other for, any consequential damages incurred by either Party and arising out of any default by the other Party under this Agreement.

20.2 Exceptions to Waiver. The foregoing limitation will not, however, in any manner

(i) limit Tenant's liability for any type of damage arising out of Tenant's obligation to indemnify, protect, defend, and hold each of the Indemnified Parties harmless under this Agreement;

(ii) limit Tenant's liability for any type of damage to the extent covered by the proceeds of insurance required hereunder; or

(iii) limit the amounts expressly provided to be payable by either Party pursuant to this Agreement.

20.3 Limitation of Landlord Liability. Except to the extent of the willful misconduct or gross negligence of Landlord and subject to Tenant's indemnification obligations, Landlord shall not be liable or responsible in any way for any damage whatsoever to any property belonging to either Tenant or the Tenant Parties.

21.0 Condemnation. If the whole or any part of the Leased Premises or all means of access thereto is condemned or sold under threat of condemnation, this Agreement shall terminate and Tenant shall have no claim against Landlord to any portion of the award in condemnation for the value of any unexplored term of this Lease or otherwise. However, this shall not limit Tenant's right to compensation from the condemning authority for the value of any of Tenant's property taken, other than Tenant's leasehold interest in the Leased Premises. In the event of a temporary taking, this Lease shall not terminate, but the Term shall be extended by the period of the taking, and the rent shall abate in proportion to the area taken for the period of such taking.

22.0 Breach and Default.

22.1 Breach by Tenant. In the event there is a breach by Tenant with respect to any of the provisions of this Agreement or its obligations under it, Landlord shall give Tenant written notice of such breach. After receipt of such notice, and unless otherwise stated in this Agreement, Tenant shall have fifteen (15) Days in which to cure any monetary breach and thirty (30) Days in which to cure any non-monetary breach, provided Tenant shall have an additional thirty (30) Days in which to cure a breach if the nature of the cure is such that it reasonably requires more than thirty (30) Days and Tenant commences the cure within the initial thirty (30)-Day period and thereafter continuously and diligently pursues the cure to completion. Landlord may not maintain any action or effect any remedies for default against Tenant unless and until Landlord determines that Tenant has failed to cure the breach within the time periods provided in this section or elsewhere in this Agreement.

22.2 Breach by Landlord. In the event there is a breach by Landlord with respect to any of the provisions of this Agreement or its obligations under it, Tenant shall give Landlord written notice of such breach. After receipt of such written notice, Landlord shall have thirty (30) Days in which to cure any such breach, provided Landlord shall have an additional thirty (30) Days in which to cure a breach if the nature of the cure is such that it reasonably requires more than thirty (30) Days and Landlord commences the cure within the thirty (30)-Day period and thereafter continuously and diligently pursues the cure to completion. Tenant may not maintain any action or effect any remedies for default against Landlord unless and until Landlord has failed to cure the breach within the time periods provided in this Section 21.0.

23.0 Remedies for Default.

23.1 Default. A default under this Agreement shall occur upon failure to cure any breach of this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or as otherwise provided by this Agreement.

23.2 Non-Defaulting Party May Correct Default. Upon a default, the non-defaulting Party may, at its option but without obligation to do so, perform the defaulting Party's duty or obligation on the defaulting Party's behalf. The costs and expenses of any such performance by the non-defaulting Party shall be due and payable by the defaulting Party upon invoice therefor.

23.3 Non-Defaulting Party May Terminate. In the event of a default by either Party with respect to a provision of this Agreement, without limiting the non-defaulting Party in the exercise of any right or remedy which the non-defaulting Party may have by reason of such default, the non-defaulting Party may terminate this Agreement and pursue any remedy now or hereafter available to the non-defaulting Party under the Laws or judicial decisions of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

23.4 Parties' Rights Cumulative. The rights of each party set forth in this Agreement upon a breach or default by the other shall be cumulative, and the exercise of any right shall not exclude the exercise of any other right.

24.0 Miscellaneous.

24.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes any prior understandings and written or oral agreements, including without limitation the Initial Lease, between them respecting this subject matter. There are no representations, agreements, arrangements, or understandings, oral or written, between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not fully expressed in this Agreement. No rights, easements or licenses are acquired in the Property or any land adjacent to the Property by Tenant by implication or otherwise except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

24.2 Interpretation. Use of the masculine (or neuter) pronoun and the singular number in this Agreement shall include the masculine, feminine and neuter genders and the singular and plural number. The word "including" followed by any specific item(s) is deemed to refer to examples rather than to be words of limitation. An obligation to do something "promptly" means an obligation to do so as soon as the circumstances reasonably permit, avoiding any delay. The verb used to introduce a statement of fact in this Agreement does not affect the remedies available for inaccuracy of that statement of fact. Both parties having participated fully and equally in the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement, this Agreement shall not be more strictly construed, nor any ambiguities in this Lease resolved, against either Landlord or Tenant.

24.3 Amendments. This Agreement may be amended, modified and supplemented only by the written consent of both Parties preceded by all formalities required as prerequisites to the signature by each Party to this Agreement, except that the Landlord's Chief Administrative Officer may administratively approve amendments to the exhibits of this Agreement.

24.4 No Waiver. The failure of either of the Parties to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the right to insist upon strict performance of such provision or of any other provision of this Agreement at any time. Waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall not constitute waiver of a subsequent breach.

24.5 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, such finding shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

24.6 Third-Party Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Tenant and Landlord hereby agree that, (i) no individual or entity shall be considered, deemed or otherwise recognized to be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement; (ii) the provisions of this Agreement are not intended to be for the benefit of any individual or entity other than Tenant and Landlord; (iii) no individual or entity shall obtain any right to make any claim against Tenant and Landlord under the provisions of this Agreement; and (iv) no provision of this Agreement shall be construed or interpreted to confer third-party beneficiary status on any individual or entity. For purposes of this Section 24.6, the phrase "individual or entity" means any individual or entity, including, but not limited to, individuals, contractors, subcontractors, vendors, subvendors, assignees, licensors and sublicensors, regardless of whether such individual or entity is named in this Agreement.

24.6 No Agency, Joint Venture, or Other Relationship. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor the performance of any act or acts pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to have the effect of creating between the Landlord and Tenant, or any of them, any relationship of principal and agent, partnership, or relationship other than the relationship established by this Agreement.

25.0 Governing Law; Forum Choice.

25.1 Governing Law. All issues and questions concerning the construction, enforcement, interpretation and validity of this Agreement, or the rights and obligations of the Parties in connection with this Agreement, shall be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of laws rules or provisions, whether of the Commonwealth of Virginia or any other jurisdiction, that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

25.2 Forum Choice. Any and all disputes, claims and causes of action arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any performances made hereunder, shall be brought, and any judicial proceeding shall take place, only in a state or federal court located within City of Richmond, Virginia.

26.0 Assignment; Sublease. . Tenant may not transfer or permit the transfer of this Agreement without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall be at Landlord’s sole discretion. For purposes of this Section 26.0, “transfer” means (i) any assignment, transfer, pledge or other encumbrance of all or a portion of Tenant’s interest in this Agreement; (ii) any sublease of all or a portion of Tenant’s interest in the Leased Premises; or (iii) any transfer of a controlling interest in Tenant such as to change the present effective control of Tenant.

27.0 Notices. Each Party shall give any notice required or permitted to be given under this Agreement in writing and such notice shall be delivered by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested; or by a commercial overnight carrier that provides next day delivery and provides a receipt. Such notice shall be addressed as follows (or any other address that the Party to be notified may have designated to the sender by like notice):

28.0 Captions. The captions contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and are not intended to be part of this Agreement. They shall not affect or be utilized in the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

29.0 Survival. The provisions of the Agreement relating to indemnification from one Party to the other Party shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. Additionally, any provisions of this Agreement which require performance subsequent to the termination or expiration of this Agreement shall survive such termination or expiration.

30.0 Subject to Appropriation. Any payments and other performance by Landlord under this Agreement are subject to annual appropriations by the City Council; consequently, this Agreement shall bind Landlord only to the extent that the City Council appropriates sufficient funds for Landlord to perform its obligations hereunder.

31.0 Signature Authority. Following the authorization of this Agreement by the City Council, Landlord's Chief Administrative Officer shall have the authority to execute this Agreement on behalf of Landlord, and, except as otherwise provided herein, only the Chief Administrative Officer or his designee shall have the authority to provide any notices or authorizations contemplated under this Agreement on behalf of Landlord.

32.0 Partial Invalidity; Authority. If any provision herein is invalid, it shall be considered deleted from this Agreement and shall not invalidate the remaining provisions of this Agreement. Each of the Parties hereto warrants to the other that the person or persons executing this Agreement on behalf of such Party has the full right, power and authority to enter into and execute this Agreement on such Party's behalf and that no consent from any other person or entity is necessary as a condition precedent to the legal effect of this Agreement.

33.0 Signatures; Counterparts. This Agreement is signed when a Party's signature is delivered by facsimile, email, or other electronic medium. These signatures must be treated in all respects as having the same force and effect as original signatures. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same Agreement.

34.0 Sovereign Immunity. Nothing in this Agreement may be construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity granted Landlord by the Commonwealth of Virginia Constitution, statutes, and applicable case law, nor may anything in this Agreement be construed as an agreement by Landlord to indemnify.
