Representative

Land Use, Housing, and Transportation

ORDINANCE/RESOLUTION SUMMARY

- The Patron requests an ordinance to require installation of handicap access curbs at all four corners of the intersections of Spruce St. and 3rd Avenue, and Juniper Street and 3rd Avenue.

BACKGROUND

Summary:

- The intersections of Spruce St. and 3rd Avenue, and Juniper Street and 3rd Avenue are located at each end of the 2300 block of 3rd Avenue.
- The patron believes that the installation of handicap access curbs will lessen the dangers to users, and improve safety and accessibility for the public.
- Ordinance No. 2018-311, adopted by City Council on January 28, 2019, addressed the installation of Stop signs and one handicap access curb at Juniper Street and 3rd Avenue. This request provides for handicapped access curbs at all four corners at the intersection of Juniper and 3rd Avenue.

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

Fiscal Impact Yes No

Budget Amendment Required Yes No

Estimated Cost or Revenue Impact

Costs of the handicap accessibility curb can be paid from the existing capital appropriation for Sidewalk Projects.
