Vice President Ann-Frances Lambert arrived at 4:16 p.m. and was seated.

Councilor Ellen Robertson mentioned her contributions to the inception of the Office of Community Wealth Building and its many programs and initiatives that help to reduce poverty in the city, and thanked Ms. Spellman, OCWB staff, ambassadors and board members for their hard work.

Councilor Nicole Jones suggested the possible inclusion of participatory budgeting and restorative justice efforts as part of an OCWB initiative.

Councilor Andreas Addison referred to the prospect of universal basic income (a fixed sum of money provided to citizens to eliminate poverty and promote equality) as a means to bridge benefit gaps for certain citizens.

Councilor Cynthia Newbille also thanked all involved with OCWB's initiatives to building paths to eliminate poverty.

Councilor Stephanie Lynch highlighted the following OCWB's accomplishments that she felt make an enormous impact on individuals living below or at the federal poverty level:

- Free bus rapid transit fare
- Early childcare and Head Start grants
- Family Crisis Fund

Ms. Spellman, along with members of Council and Mayor Stoney, recognized and thanked OCWB staff in attendance.

Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 4:56 p.m.
