I was recently admitted to the Virginia Bar after finishing my legal degree in May 2021. I pursued educational opportunities throughout undergraduate and law school to study marginalized communities, the impact of laws and policies upon those communities and legal solutions and policies to further equity. After my clerkship, I plan to litigate in the intersection of human rights and civil rights. I have previously assisted in the policy planning for the Lee monument removal and the formation of the Governor's Commission to examine racial inequities in the law. Under the Attorney General as a legal intern, I assisted on the Equal Rights Amendment litigation. At the federal level, I worked on federal lawsuits brought by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development against housing providers who discriminated on the basis of disability. I recently presented at the International Legal Technology Association Conference and spoke about my interest in using data modeling to eliminate

I am deeply passionate about Affordable Housing and Housing Justice in the Greater Richmond area. Initially, I was sceptical and leery of the impact and direction of the Maggie Walker Community Land Trust. Over the past few months, I have come to learn that the Maggie Walker Community Land Trust Home Ownership Programs are thoughtful, beneficial and impactful and I believe these programs can make a significant impact on fostering the Affordable Housing stock in the Richmond area. I have also witnessed the amount of thoughtful debate and analysis exhibited by Community Advisory Panel pertaining to the properties held by the Land Trust. Community Advisory Panel meetings have assured me that developing, preserving and fostering the Affordable Housing stock in Richmond lives at the heart of their primary mission. It would be an honour and my pleasure to assist the organization find success in any way that I can.
