

City of Richmond Dept. of Planning & Development Review: Scott's Addition & W. Broad Street Preliminary Rezoning Open Houses #1 May 24 & #2 June 7

- #1: Kick-off public meeting for City-initiated rezoning process.
- #2: Detailed review based on feedback from #1
- Focused on the Scott's Addition neighborhood and W. Broad Street between Boulevard and I-95.
- Staff will present proposed rezoning to match future land use as envisioned in the Pulse Corridor Plan
- Questions: Kathleen Onufer, PDR
Kathleen.Onufer@richmondgov.com
(804) 646-5207

Wednesday, May 24 5:30-7 PM

Gather Scott's Addition, 2920 West Broad Street

There is limited parking available off-street, but ample on-street parking surrounding the meeting area. The location is also accessible by the #6 bus and there is bike parking available on-site. The meeting will be an open house style; City staff will have materials for review and be available to answer questions, but there will be no set schedule.

Wednesday, June 7 5:30-7 PM

DMV HQ, 2300 West Broad Street

Parking is available in the DMV lot. The location is also accessible by the #6 bus and there is bike parking available on-site. The meeting will include a detailed presentation beginning at 5:30; as well as revised materials for review .