Currently, I am teaching a community outreach program entitled Matter of Balance (MOB) to 60+ year old participants. This 8-week evidenced-based program is a joint effort between Senior Connections and the trauma centers at HCA and VCU hospital systems, and is free to all participants. These programs are held in community centers, churches, and retirement communities throughout town, as well as in our neighboring counties. The MOB program educates attendees on exercises and nutrition to improve balance, to perform self/home/community assessments to prevent falls, as well as provides them with the tools to improve their quality of life and the ability to age in place

SMIN Square

EXECUTIVE COACHING | LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

May 26, 2020

To Whom It May Concern:

I write to you to express my enthusiastic interest in the Board of Director seat for Reynolds Community College. My previous experiences in private, public and the non-profit sector has prepared me for this position. Additionally, my organizational development/operations, strategic planning/ implementation, community outreach and engagement, and commitment to advocating for equity in our communities, position me as an ideal candidate for this role.

My fervor for understanding the systemic challenges youth in urban communities' face, and the urgent need for equity for all communities, and the importance for post-secondary education has been reinforced by my in-depth continued research and training in this space. This training, coupled with my passion and love of working with and for diverse communities, catalyzed my interest for this board seat.

To this role, I will contribute passion, scholastic insight, a wealth of training in understanding the social drivers, expertise in building multi-sector relationships, and nonprofit management. I also offer practical experience with proven principles and practices, a broad understanding of our communities and the complexities of fiscal management and budget administration experience, and a vast network of community, civic, nonprofit colleagues and comrades.

I feel this role will continue to allow me to be a visible and action-oriented leader who implements viable, creative solutions to insure equity and wellness for diverse populations. My specific training and practical experience working in urban areas, would be an asset to Reynolds Community College. Should you require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me via phone (804-931-1025) or email (Shawn@smnsquare.com). I hope to have the opportunity to further discuss my qualifications for this role with you, in-person.

Sincere regards,

Shawn M. Nicholson

I hold a Bachelor of Social Work from VCU and a Master of Public Health in Behavioral and Community Health from UMD. I am a Certified Health Education Specialist and currently do statewide programming on alcohol misuse prevention. I am a motivated individual looking to grow professionally as a Public Health Scientist and Community Program Planner. My four years of experience have allowed me to explore various fields and gain skills in treatment planning, research methods, counseling, service delivery, prevention methods and behavioral health interventions. I am especially interested in the areas of resiliency, trauma-informed care and co-occurring mental illness and substance misuse. I have worked with individuals from diverse backgrounds and always take a social ecological and strengths-based approach. I follow best practices that are based in research and am passionate about social injustice. I believe that we must all strive for health equity.
