Regular Agenda:

There were no Regular Agenda items.

Councilor Andreas Addison arrived at 4:08 p.m. and was seated.

Sharon Ebert, deputy chief administrative officer – Planning and Economic Development, was available to answer questions pertaining to the introduction of legislation accepting the second tranche of American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) funding.

Councilor Ann-Frances Lambert arrived at 4:10 p.m. and was seated.

Cordell Hayes, legislative and policy management analyst, informed Council of an impending press conference, highlighting a certain housing development project, which was funded with the first tranche of ARPA dollars, and revealing selected awardees of the second tranche of ARPA funding, along with recommendations for affordable housing projects in the city.

President Michael Jones asked that Council receive more than a 24-hour notice regarding mayoral press conferences.

Vice President Kristen Nye requested an ARPA update.

Councilor Stephanie Lynch requested standing committee review of several budget-related items, scheduled to be introduced later that evening during the Formal Session of Council.

Tabrica Rentz, deputy city attorney, advised Council of its Rule of Procedure VI(B)(3)(c), which committee referral waives budget-related legislation upon introduction; however, she stated that Council may move to refer items to a standing committee for recommendation prior to introduction.

President Jones asked his colleagues of their preference regarding the review of all future legislation by a standing committee.

Councilor Andreas Addison voiced his support of future standing committee review, excluding time-sensitive legislation with prior Council briefing.

After further inquiry, City Attorney Laura Drewry reiterated the committee waiving of legislation pursuant to Council's Rule VI(B)(3)(c); however, she indicated that the rule can be amended.

Ms. Rentz informed Council that Rule VI(B)(3)(c) was enacted several years prior in order to facilitate a more efficient process for reviewing budget-related legislation.

After further discussion, President Jones advised his colleagues that he will review discussed legislation for standing committee referral prior to introduction later that evening during the Formal Session of Council.

Sharon Ebert, deputy chief administrative officer – Planning and Economic Development, introduced and answered questions regarding Ord. 2023-156.

Robert "Bob" Steidel, deputy chief administrative officer – Operations, introduced and answered questions regarding Res. 2023-R029.

Councilor Ellen Robertson, requesting that she be informed regarding redevelopment in her district prior to the introduction of legislation, asked that Res. 2023-R029 be continued to allow her an opportunity for further dialogue and review with city administration.

After further discussion, it was the consensus of Council to continue Res. 2023-R029 to the June 26, 2023 Council meeting.

Councilor Katherine Jordan informed Council that proposed Ord. 2023-144 will take effect prior to the June 20, 2023 primary elections, if adopted.

There were no further comments or discussions concerning Consent and Regular Agenda items reviewed.

Other Discussion Item(s)

President Michael Jones, along with all members of Council, recognized and commended Steven Skinner, Council senior public information manager, and Steven Taylor, Council principal management analyst, for their fifteen years of dedicated service to the city.

Mr. Skinner and Mr. Taylor thanked Council for the recognition.

Closed Session

At 5:03 p.m., Councilor Cynthia Newbille moved that the City Council go into a closed meeting pursuant to subdivision (A)(1) of section 2.2-3711 of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act to discuss and consider the assignment, performance, and salaries of certain Council liaisons.

The motion was seconded and unanimously approved.

Councilor Cynthia Newbille motioned to exit closed session. The motion was seconded and approved: Ayes 6, Jordan, Lambert, Trammell, Newbille, Nye, Jones. Noes None. Addison, Robertson and Lynch had departed the meeting.

Councilors reconvened in open session at 5:51 p.m.
