As a member of Richmond's local business community, I have witnessed the crippling effects of incarceration for individuals looking to reintegrate themselves back into society. It is extremely challenging for any individual that's been incarcerated to obtain employment, affordable housing, or quality healthcare. Furthermore, the conditions within the city's jails/justice center have been negatively impacted by COVID-19, which has presented a unique public health risk to incarcerated citizens and law enforcement. I believe that my experience as a Business Analyst in the Healthcare industry allows me to bring analytic solutions to policymaking which can remedy this public health issue - in tandem with focusing on substantive policy reforms with respect to keeping formerly incarcerated individuals out of from being incarcerated again.

The company I am employed by specializes in Care Management for Medicare and Medicaid patients - meaning I have subject matter expertise in National and State Medicare & Medicaid policies. Since Virginia has passed and implemented Medicaid Expansion, all citizens that are considered Medicaid eligible are covered by the expansion - including those who've been incarcerated. I believe that the city could leverage it's resources to engage recently incarcerated individuals with Social Workers, Case Managers, etc. in order to improve their quality of I

Jewel Gatling was born and raised in Portsmouth, VA and is a proud graduate of Norfolk State University with a Bachelors in Sociology and Iowa State University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Masters in Sociology with an emphasis in Social Disorganization, Victimization and Community Cohesion. In May 2012 she became a Fellow with the Obama for America campaign. It is here where her passion for civic engagement, community advocacy and organizing developed. After the re-election of President Obama, Jewel would continue her work on various state and local elections through her creation of the Suffolk Young Democrats (SYD). With the support of the Suffolk Democratic Committee, Jewel served as President of SYD from 2013 to 2015 and was able to organize numerous community engagement events, such as political education forums, voter registration, school supply and food drives. In 2017 Jewel took her gifts to Richmond, VA and began her work as an Assistant Legislative Aide for the Office of Senator Lynwood Lewis and the Office of Delegate Luke E. Torian. Jewel is a graduate of the Virginia Progressive Leadership Program, a Life Member of the NAACP, a former Suffolk Chair with the Hampton Roads Young Democrats, has worked with the Virginia Civic Engagement Table as an Organizer for the Youth Virginia Votes Center-Richmond and is currently the Executive Director for Brown Virginia, a non-profit that provides a diverse and balanced voice to issues of importance in minority communities. Jewel still maintains her devotion for change through neighborhood call to action meetings. These community gatherings are designed to educate, empower and encourage citizens on how to become involved in political action and to productively advocate for social issues.

I am currently in contract with Richmond Police Department (L.I.F.E Program) ran by Officer Elaine Minor and Officer Farrhard Al-Amin. I am contracted to facilitate a series of reentry workshops collaboratively at Bon Air Correctional Center. It is currently on hold but still active.

Please List Your Educational Background and/or Other Expertise or Qualifications You Will Bring to This Authority, Board, Commission or Task Force:

I have been a youth advocate for 6 years in my former role as Program Manager at ART180 and presently in my new role. Over the years I have also worked closely with the Richmond City Detention Center (Post-D) supporting young people with resources, jobs, creative outlets and mentoring in the city. I currently manage a community based youth reentry/diversion program and a Youth Ambassador Squad which is geared towards helping young people that are justice involved stay free from incarceration, transition into adulthood to prepare them for independent living. I have also worked closely with Richmond Police Department during our former Chief (Alfred Durham) term. I have conducted multiple focus groups with new recruit officers and senior officers over the years to try to encourage and help build trust between RPD and the community. I am very well connected to the young people I serve, their issues and their needs. I have also spent some time working with adults coming through the system by offering encouragement, job leads and even paid opportunities (thru my programs) to tap into their leadership and accountability by mentoring young people transitioning home from detention.

I have 20 years of experience as a criminal justice professional. For 13 years I served as Director of Victims Services for Richmond's Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney. In this position I fostered working relationships with local, state, and federal agencies, as well as private and non-profit entities to ensure enterprise-wide stakeholder engagement in key decision-making and strategic planning activities. I demonstrated the ability to persuade and enhance the sphere support of senior leadership, by developing policies and several initiatives designed to engage education, government, community and business leaders in the challenges and opportunities of creating and sustaining partnerships of importance to the agencies and community at large. The result of which increased funding and resource streams.

Also, as the director of Victim Services I was selected to service on the Community Criminal Justice Taskforce. The taskforce consisted of agency leadership from various agencies engaged in strategic planning initiatives related to Pre-trial Services, policy, mental health, homelessness, truancy, juvenile justice, etc.
