Who are these people?

Jewish Voices for Peace/Student Justice for Palestine

Jewish Voices for Peace (JVP), through their affiliated campus chapters Student Justice for Palestine (SJP), have helped to create an extremely hostile environment for Jewish students on college campuses. The harassment led some campuses to suspend their JVP or SJP chapters. At Columbia University, the JVP chapter was banned for what the University labeled “threatening rhetoric and intimidation” and for holding unauthorized gatherings.

Since the 10/7 attacks, JVP has been openly engaging in what it labels as “civil disobedience,” shutting down bridges, roads, and transit systems in order to draw attention to their issue.

JVP is NOT representative of the mainstream Jewish community and should not be used to legitimize antisemitic/anti-Zionist views. The overwhelming majority of the Jewish community is Zionist.
