Citizen Comment

CD.2023.017 January 23, 2023 Citizen Comment Period Speakers List

Ben Cronly, Byrd Theatre Assistant General Manager, addressed Council and requested additional funding for Carytown. Mr. Cronly stated that Carytown was a tourist destination that promotes economic activity in the city. Mr. Cronly also stated that Carytown requires additional funding to address trash and graffiti, so that the area and local businesses remain inviting to tourists.

L. Shirley Harvey addressed Council and stated that government should not disrespect citizens. Ms. Harvey also stated that Richmond City was not established to allow gambling.

Timothy Drew addressed Council regarding public safety in the city. Mr. Drew informed Council of his willingness to assist the Richmond Police Department (RPD) but added that he was prohibited from that action due to age limits established in the Code of Virginia. Mr. Drew provided documentation of his request for an age waiver.

A copy of the material provided has been filed.

President Michael Jones thanked Mr. Drew for his comments, and he also noted his concerns with the age limit referenced by Mr. Drew.

David Mitchell addressed Council and informed members about his concerns regarding the Department of Utilities' practice of relying on estimated usage for billing. Mr. Mitchell stated that he believed the estimated usage practice was illegal, and he noted that he informed the City Attorney of his concern. Mr. Mitchell also informed Council of his intention to sue the city regarding the estimated usage practice.
