I have a high school diploma and completed some college coursework. Since age 18, I have operated my own painting company, including work on historic buildings that required attention to detail and sensitivity to architectural character. I also conducted historic carriage tours in Charleston, South Carolina, where I gained a strong understanding of architectural styles, preservation practices, and the importance of maintaining historical integrity in urban settings.

Since moving to Richmond and living downtown in Shockoe Slip, I have developed a deep appreciation for the city's historic architecture. This combination of hands-on preservation experience, business management, historical knowledge, and personal passion for Richmond's historic character equips me to thoughtfully contribute to the Commission of Architectural Review and support the preservation of the city's

N/A - I have lived in Richmond for one year, and serving on the Commission of Architectural Review is my first step toward getting involved in local civic and preservation efforts.

Other Community Involvement:

I am a new resident of Richmond and am eager to become more involved in the community. Serving on the Commission of Architectural Review is my first step toward contributing to the preservation of the city's historic neighborhoods. I am committed to applying my hands-on experience with historic buildings, knowledge of architectural styles, and personal passion for Richmond's historic character to support the board's mission.

(OPTIONAL) Please List Additional Information You Would Like Considered, or You May Copy and Paste Your Short Resume.

I am very excited about the opportunity to serve on the Commission of Architectural Review and look forward to contributing my hands-on experience with historic buildings, knowledge of architectural styles, and passion for Richmond's historic neighborhoods. Living downtown in Shockoe Slip has deepened my appreciation for the city's cobblestone streets, brick buildings, and unique architectural character, and I am eager to help preserve and celebrate Richmond's heritage.

Richmond Redevelopment and Housing Authority

Vacancies as of May 10, 2026

Section 5.05(d) of the Charter of the City of Richmond (2006) expressly provides that “the appointment of members of a redevelopment and housing authority in the city shall be made by the council.” Section 36-11 of the Code of Virginia (1950) authorizes the Council to provide for not more than nine or less than five commissioners of the Authority. By Resolution No. 99-R46-80, adopted March 22, 1999, the Council increased the number of commissioners from five to seven as authorized by section 36-11 of the Code of Virginia (1950). Resolution No. 2010-R140-162, adopted October 25, 2010, increased the number of commissioners from seven to nine with the addition of a Council-appointed seat and an additional tenant representative seat.

Pursuant to section 36-11 of the Code of Virginia (1950), no commissioner of the Authority may be an officer or employee of the City. By Resolution No. 2003-R230-2004-R18, adopted January 12, 2004, the Council established a procedure to be followed for appointing one member living in public or assisted housing to serve on the Authority’s Board of Commissioners as required by the regulations of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. This resolution was further amended by Resolution No. 2010-R141-173, adopted November 8, 2010, which revised the process of appointing the tenant representatives to the board.
