Discussion Item(s)

Board and Commission Assignments to Standing Committees

Chair Katherine Jordan addressed the committee regarding board and commission assignments to standing committees and stated that she has a draft list of realigning the assignments. Chair Jordan advised that she would provide the list to the other Council members and requested the list be forwarded to an upcoming Organizational Development meeting for approval.

Vice Chair Ann-Frances Lambert stated she supported the efforts to make City Council more affective.

Joyce Davis requested a target date for the amended boards and commissions assignment legislation.

Chair Jordan advised Ms. Davis that the introduction of the legislation for board and commission reassignments would be in a month to 45 days, as long as feedback is received from other Council members.

Future Committee Presentations and Meeting Scheduling

Chair Katherine Jordan requested moving the committee meeting time to 1:00 p.m. She informed the committee that the December meeting would be moved to December 13, 2023. She advised that the committee received a list of future presentations from administration for consideration. She also advised that the committee would start with combined storm water and water rates presentations at the next meeting.

Robert Steidel, Deputy Chief Administrative Officer of Operations, provided comments and responded to questions regarding facilities maintenance and surplus properties. He stated his portfolio would create a presentation with all the requested information during the March meeting.

Staff Report

Council Policy Analyst Joyce Davis provided the committee with a staff report. Ms. Davis informed the committee that the Charter Review Commission will be sending a report to Council members, that outlines the commission's plans for the next six months and its plans to request a date change from the date stated in the ordinance to give the commission additional time to provide recommendations to Council. She also informed the committee that the commission has a survey it will provide to Council in the form of an interview for each Council member that will be scheduled.

Chair Katherine Jordan stated that city administration requested the committee to review the reports that are required on an annual basis and she requested DCAO Bob Steidel to prepare a list for them to review.
