RE: Eviction Diversion Program

ORD. OR RES. No.

PURPOSE: To amend the Fiscal Year 2024-2025 General Fund Budget by transferring $1,000,000.00 from a Non-Departmental agency reserve to a new line item to support providing funds to the Southside Community Development and Housing Corporation to administer the City of Richmond’s Eviction Diversion Program.

Non-Departmental Reserve Transfer:

- Current line item: Eviction Diversion Program
 - Total = $1,000,000.000
- New line item: Non-Depart - Eviction Diversion Program - Southside Community Development and Housing Corporation
 - Total = $1,000,000.00

The new line item is to provide clarity on the intended recipient of the Non-Departmental funds.

BACKGROUND: Between 2016 and 2019, Richmond, VA, had the second-highest eviction rate in the United States, at 11.44%. To combat this phenomenon, the City of Richmond collaborated with a local nonprofit to create its Eviction Diversion Program (EDP). However, while Federal and State moratoriums and emergency rental assistance provided during the pandemic assisted in keeping many low and moderate-income persons housed, this demographic has not fared well since COVID-19 as the mandated moratoriums have ended. Many low-income households face eviction every day, and the number of evictions has steadily climbed.

In March 2024, the City's original EDP administrator ceased operations as they returned to their original charge and practice of fair housing support and advocacy. While the Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD) sought out a new administrator for the EDP, the City's Family Crisis Fund collaborated with several Richmond-based partner organizations to provide wraparound services to individuals in crisis and, when needed, financial assistance. This stop-gap measure was implemented to support those experiencing housing instability during the EDP administrative transition period and budget cycle.

On March 27, 2024, Mayor Stoney proposed $1,000,000.00 to support the continuation of the EDP. On May 13, 2024, City Council adopted the Fiscal Year 2024-2025 General Fund budget, which authorized the dedicated funding for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2024.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT: Southside Community Development and Housing Corporation was selected through a call for applications process that commenced in April 2024.

The call for applications sought out approved housing counseling agencies in Richmond, Virginia, as identified on the US Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) website, as well as other applicable entities that received Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act funding that supported emergency rental assistance during the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Only one application was received out of the entities notified and engaged. Through a rating and ranking evaluation process, the applicant, Southside Community Development and Housing Corporation, was deemed an excellent fit for administering the Eviction Diversion Program.
