Julia is practiced in leading a gubernatorial legislative team with extensive experience identifying emerging issues, developing and implementing high-level policy initiatives, and securing passage of a variety of measures and key reforms before the Virginia General Assembly.

Julia served as the director of legislative affairs and policy to Governor Robert F. McDonnell from 2011-2013. Julia led the McDonnell administration's legislative strategy, developed the governor's policy agenda, and worked with members of the Virginia General Assembly to advance the governor's priorities. She was pivotal to the success of the governor's agendas, directing the administration's outreach to the General Assembly and stakeholder groups.

Julia has a strong background in the legislative development process, creating the state budget, and executive branch agency functions. Prior to joining the administration, Julia was state director for National Federation of Independent Business in Virginia. She previously served as director of government relations for the Virginia Hospitality and Travel Association, she served in the Office of Attorney General Jerry Kilgore, and as a legislative aide to Delegate David Albo.

Prior to joining Cozen O'Connor, Julia served as a senior manager of government affairs in the Richmond office of a national law firm. Julia earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Mary Washington.

I have practiced Cardiology and Critical Care in Richmond Community Hospital since 2009. I have been deeply engaged with Richmond's East End since I moved here. I was responsible for all 15 cases of intoxication by clenbuterol contaminated heroin brought to Richmond Community Hospital, with 100% survival. My cooperation with Law Enforcement led to the arrest of the responsible dealer which ended the outbreak. The entire series was published in the Journal of the CDC. Besides my medical skills, I genuinely care about my neighborhood and the City of Richmond

Other Community Involvement:

I have provided many hours of public education for the Healthy U Project and other efforts for Council Person Cynthia Newbille
