RE: Dominion Energy Proposed Rooftop Sign
8th & Main Building (707 East Main St)

Dear Mr. Mallon:

In response to Dominion Energy Services, Inc.'s August 1, 2017 letter regarding its proposed rooftop signage replacement at Dominion Energy's 8th & Main Building, the Virginia Employment Commission does not object to the replacement as proposed in the April 3, 2017 ssg. "Signage Recommendations 8th & Main – Richmond" document and more particularly illustrated in the various May 2017 dated Everbrite drawings, so long as the replacement takes place as represented on a weekend and is in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

However, we are unable to complete the requested form which advocates a position before a governmental body in favor of one private party. We do offer the enclosed letter as an alternative.

Sincerely,

RE: Virginia Electric and Power Company dba Dominion Energy
8th & Main Building Special Use Permit Amendment for Building Sign

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Virginia Employment Commission, the owner of the Virginia Employment Commission Building located at 703 East Main Street that adjoins Dominion Energy's 8th & Main Building located at 707 East Main Street.

This letter confirms that the Virginia Employment Commission does not object to the building signage replacement as proposed in the April 3, 2017 ssg. "Signage Recommendations 8th & Main – Richmond" document and more particularly illustrated in the various May 2017 dated Everbrite drawings provided by Dominion Energy to the Commission, so long as the replacement takes place, as Dominion Energy has represented, on a weekend and is in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Sincerely,
