ORDINANCE/RESOLUTION SUMMARY

This Ordinance is to change the street address for precinct 101 due to the University of Richmond renaming its streets and change the name for the polling place for precinct 303 due to City of Richmond Public Schools changing the name of the school that currently serves as the polling place for that precinct.

BACKGROUND

This Ordinance is to change the street address for precinct 101 due to the University of Richmond renaming its streets and change the name for the polling place for precinct 303 due to City of Richmond Public Schools changing the name of the school that currently serves as the polling place for that precinct. During the summer of 2018, the University of Richmond changed the names of the streets throughout its campus. This changed the street address for the polling place for precinct 101 from 49 Crenshaw Way to 442 Westhampton Way.

Also during the summer of 2018, Richmond Public Schools changed the name of the J.E.B. Stuart Elementary School to the Barak Obama Elementary School. This school serves as the polling place for precinct 303.

The proposed new precinct will require notices of these changes to be mailed to 1,951 registered voters in precinct 101 and 1,211 registered voters in precinct 303. The printing and mail costs for this purpose are estimated to be $3,162. Whether or not this cost can be absorbed in the current budget is not known. It will depend upon whether or not there is a June 2019 primary. It will not be known until April 2019 whether or not there will be a primary in June 2019.
