Citizen Comment

CD.2023.040 February 13, 2023 Citizen Comment Period Speakers List

Jerome Berry addressed Council and informed members that he was unable to maintain foliage and debris extending onto his property due to his disability. Mr. Berry also stated that he was unable to afford hiring a contractor to address the excess growth and debris. Mr. Berry asked that Council assist with his issue and provide additional guidance.

President Michael Jones requested that city administration provide Mr. Berry with information available to assist him with his concern.

Michael Bailey, Life Coach Academy Founder, addressed Council and stated that families and students at Martin Luther King, Jr. Middle School needed help. Mr. Bailey also stated that it was important for Council to address suicide prevention within the school.

Councilwoman Reva Trammell requested that Mr. Bailey provide Council with Life Coach Academy funding requests prior to Council's review of the city's budget.

Councilor Ellen Robertson stated her appreciation for the work performed by the Life Coach Academy at Martin Luther King, Jr. Middle School. Councilor Robertson also stated her concerns about youth suicide and gun violence in schools. Councilor Robertson further stated that she would work to find funding for the Life Coach Academy in the upcoming city budget.

Councilor Cynthia Newbille stated her appreciation for the work of Mr. Bailey.

A copy of all material provided has been filed.
