The Board of Directors shall be composed of at least fifteen (15) members, and no more than thirty (30) members (by-laws). The board shall consist of three categories of membership, as follows:

Local Government Representatives – Representatives of local governments will make up one-third of the board’s members. Each participating jurisdiction’s governing body will be requested to appoint a certain number of representatives, who reside in a jurisdiction, to serve on the Board of Directors. The number of directors requested to serve on behalf of a jurisdiction will be determined by the percentage of low income residents of that jurisdiction compared to the total number of low income residents of all participating jurisdictions.

Representatives of the Poor – One third of the board’s members shall be members of CAPUP’s Neighborhood Advisory Councils.

Representatives of Community Organizations – One third of the members of the board shall be officials or designated representatives of business, industry, labor, religious, educational welfare, law enforcement or other major groups in the region, and persons added to the board as a result of the petition provision of the Bylaws.

Executive Consultant, 2022-2023

Independent Consultant

Provide direct services to diverse clients to enable their teams to meet organizational goals. Services include instructional leadership coaching, programmatic design & development, creating roadmaps and practices for data analysis and systems and overall strategic counsel. Clients include: Public Consulting Group, The College Board, EdConnective and New Schools for New Orleans.

Richmond Public Schools, 2018 - 2022

Chief Academic Officer

Serve as the instructional leader for the PK-12 school division with the goal of turning around persistently failing schools; set the vision, strategy, goals and metrics across all academic areas and manage senior leaders who are responsible for all facets of the student-facing experience in school, including the central academic teams and schools. Significant accomplishments include: integrating and expanding early childhood programs into a singular model; leading the adoption and implementation of high-quality K-12 curricula; dramatically increased the high school graduation rate and lowered the drop-out rate; established data and outcome-monitoring systems for student outcomes and developed and launched a Literacy Plan to ensure all students read on grade level by 3rd grade.

National Math + Science Initiative, 2016 - 2018

Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

Lead organizational strategy, programs and operations for a national non-profit dedicated to expanding opportunities for STEM achievement for all students. NMSI partners with school systems across the country to build the capacity of teachers to effectively prepare students for success in STEM—in college and in career. Specific responsibilities include: oversee the organization's annual plan with goals, priorities, staffing and budget, manage the CFO, CIO, CTO and CPO functions and align the organizational resources to accomplish our goals, including the oversight of a $50MM annual operating budget. Significant accomplishments include: advocated to federal agencies, including being selected as a featured speaker at a White House speaker series on STEM education; led development of robust 5-year strategic plan; codified program and service offerings; established a data and outcome-monitoring systems; and built a scale-able pricing model to expand funding streams.

Education First Consulting, 2015-2016

Principal

Consulted with philanthropists, school systems and school-serving organizations to develop and/or improve their strategy, with a focus on teaching and learning/program strategy and technical assistance. Clients included school systems, U.S. Department of Education, The National Math + Science Initiative, The Aspen Institute and numerous philanthropic organizations.

Achievement First Public Schools, 2010-2015

Chief Academic Officer 2012-2015

Led the design and implementation of a multi-year strategy to align academics to college and career-ready standards, including the development of a new K-12 curriculum across all core content areas; an integrated teacher professional development to support teachers and school leaders to meet higher expectations for student learning and ensure all students were on track to meet a “college-ready bar.” Specific responsibilities included: lead and managed the central office academic services, special education and student services, data and leader development teams; partnered with regional superintendents to ensure schools had clear teaching & learning priorities and received the necessary and effective central office support; designed and led the early change management and implementation of a strategy to significantly increase student learning outcomes through a comprehensive academic model and approach to teacher and principal preparation and development. Achievement First schools are now among the highest performing in the most-underserved areas of Brooklyn, NY.

Regional Superintendent 2010-2012

Responsible for overall achievement for an elementary school cohort and led the school system's efforts to improve its Brooklyn elementary schools, which were in a turnaround state due to low performance. To achieve a successful turnaround, developed a plan for school culture resets, which included new school-wide systems for principal coaching and a common instructional program across the elementary schools to reflect more rigorous statewide standards and a more rigorous statewide assessment.

IDEA Public Schools, 2003-2009

Chief Academic Officer 2006-2009

Established an aligned PK-12 academic model and strategy for central team services to schools to ensure consistently high outcomes for students across the school system. Led the development of core curriculum, assessments, professional development and school supports, as well as supports for students receiving special services as well as English language learners; managed the launch of a new student data system, including an interim assessment system for all grades and core subjects. In partnership with families, supported the expansion of the school system from two to twelve schools, earning a Recognized rating from the Texas Education Agency every year for four years, and led the improvement of a low-performing school rated Not Acceptable by the Texas Education Agency to a Recognized rating. IDEA Public Schools is a recipient of the Broad Prize for school system excellence based on student achievement data and academic growth.

Founding High School Principal, IDEA College Preparatory-Donna 2003-2006 Designed, launched and led the first open-enrollment IB high school where all students enrolled in IB, 90% of students qualified for free/reduced lunch and 98% Latino. The school has consistently earned Recognized and Exemplary ratings by the Texas Education Agency and has been ranked in the top high schools in Texas and in the nation; and the school has consistently sent 100% of its graduating class to college every year.

Teach For America, 1999-2003

Associate Director of National Program 2002-2003

Co-designed Teach for America's national support structure to ensure novice PK-12 teachers received strong ongoing professional development and support during their first two years of teaching; co-developed the pilot significant academic gains measure, which helped teachers consider their impact based on academic outcomes for students; developed tools and resources for the effective delivery of the program in 18 regional sites and led a support and feedback structure for 10 program sites supporting 25 program directors across the country.

Program Director, Rio Grande Valley 1999-2002

Coached 70 teachers annually in grades PK-12 to set ambitious classroom goals, observe and provide feedback on instructional effectiveness and deliver ongoing support and help them achieve significant academic gains for their students; collaborated with over 30 principals across nine school districts to secure appropriate supports for first and second-year teachers and ensure the program was meeting the needs of schools and districts.

Weslaco Independent School District, 1997-1999

Teacher, Cuellar Middle School

Taught 8th grade social studies and coached extracurricular athletics; built strong student and family relationship and led students to significant academic gains, achieving the strongest results during the first year of the Texas Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (TAKS), overall and for all subgroup populations; founded a student leadership program "Future Valley Leaders" and led 15 students each year to plan, fundraise and travel to Washington DC to meet with lawmakers and better understand our democracy in action.
