Subject: Master Plan

Hi Ellyn.

Thanks for the opportunity to review the master plan. I've reviewed the top level recommendations (first 25 pages). I will read the rest but saw that you wanted feedback by today so I'm sharing what I have so far.

Overall I think the recommendations seem comprehensive, make sense and are presented in an easy to digest way. Hopefully that will help Council embrace it.

I like the addition of temporary, performing and media arts to the definition of public art. I also like the phased timing of the recommendations.

Some more specific comments to consider:

How do the latest political discussions about Monument Ave and other confederate monuments impact the recommendations or how they are delivered?

Dept of Cultural Affairs- there's probably more in the detail about this but would like to explore this further with you. I do think a City position at a "cabinet" level would be helpful, and it's something the arts and culture leaders suggested to the Mayor back in December.

Top of page 10 references Essential Resource but no description. Interested to read that in the final version.

P.14 references arts vibrancy index from NCAR and how we fell out of the top 20 last year. I believe that's the SMU study that earlier this year has us back in the Top 20. May want to reference that.

Happy to discuss questions. Let me know what you need in terms of support for it. Thanks again for all you're doing for the arts in RVA.

Scott

Hi Elyn. Thank you so much for a copy of the draft. I haven't completed a reading, but am into it. The vision is powerful, and the hurdles, the size of mountains. However, I believe that you are worthy of the effort and will bring Richmond Public Art into the 21st century (with all of its challenges). Best, Marla

Very impressed with the thoughtful comprehensive 10 year plan. Lots of amazing time and energy!
Interesting new developments with Confederate Memorials. Role of Art Commission?
