Discussion Item(s)

The City's Plans to Respond to Potential Emergency Situations and Severe Weather in the City

Traci DeShazor, Deputy Chief Administrative Officer (DCAC) for Human Services, and Anthony McLean, Department of Emergency Communications, Preparedness and Response Deputy Director, discussed with the committee information regarding emergency situations that may occur in the city, and the planned response to any emergency event.

Member Stephanie Lynch stated her appreciation for the proposed plans addressed by DCAO DeShazor and Deputy Director McLean. Member Lynch also stated that the city needed to have locations identified and staffed in preparation to any emergency weather event.

Member Cynthia Newbille inquired about the capacity of the emergency site proposed by city administration.

DCAO DeShazer stated the city hoped its contingency plan could assist 100 people, to include 65 men, 30 women, and five families. DCAO DeShazer also stated the contingency facility was immediately ready to provide shelter in an emergency situation.

Chair Michael Jones requested that city administration keep Education and Human Services Standing Committee Chair Stephanie Lynch briefed on emergency shelter action taken by the city.

Council Succession Plans

Council Chief of Staff (CCOS) LaTasha Holmes provided the committee with information regarding Council action necessary to address the potential vacancy of the City Council 9th District Representative seat. CCOS Holmes informed committee members that Council could either appoint an individual or hold a special election to fill the vacancy within 45 days of the 9th District Representative submitting a resignation.

Member Ann-Frances Lambert inquired if City Council standing committee assignments would be amended once the 9th District vacancy is filled.

Chair Michael Jones stated that committee assignments would be addressed, but that it was the goal of Council leadership to avoid any disruptive changes to current assignments.
