BACKGROUND

The parcels known as Linear Park and Samuel Pleasants Parsons Linear Park were condemned by the Commonwealth during the widening of Route 1 and construction of the Lee Bridge during the late 1980's and early 1990's. The vacant parcels mitigate traffic noise. The parcels were granted to the City by the Commonwealth.

Currently, the parcels between Idlewood Avenue and Spring Street are known as Samuel Pleasants Parsons Park Linear Park. Area residents wish that all of parcels are designated in this manner. Samuel L Parsons was an abolitionist who live in this area of the City.
