

REYNOLDS & CITY OF RICHMOND 2015-2016 ACADEMIC YEAR RECAP

WHERE OUTSTANDING LIVES
GET STARTED

RICHMOND QUICK FACTS

- 3,560 Richmond City residents attended Reynolds last year.
- 236 Richmond City residents earned a degree or certificate from Reynolds during this time.
- 132 recent RPS graduates enrolled at Reynolds last year.

PARTNERSHIPS WITH RICHMOND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

- This fall, Reynolds will implement an Early College Academy for approximately 40 students who will complete an AS in Social Sciences degree while still in high school.
- Reynolds is partnering with RPS to launch the “Plugged-In Virginia” program to teach adult basic education and GED test preparation.
- Reynolds provides career coaches at Huguenot High School, Armstrong High School, George Wythe High School, and John Marshall High School to help students prepare academic and career plans.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

- Reynolds’ Opticianry program hosts an annual Kid’s Vision Day for RPS students and provides free eye exams and custom eyeglasses.
- Reynolds provides dental assisting services to referred residents of the City of Richmond.

REYNOLDS FACTS:

17,742
students served annually

90 degree and certificate programs

1,272
employees

1 in 4 workers
in the Greater Richmond
region has attended
Reynolds

1 in 3 healthcare workers
in the Greater Richmond
region has attended
Reynolds

Reynolds College Board members for Richmond City:

Steve Baril
Thurman Cash III
Dr. Brenda Drew
Dr. Rondle Edwards
Ernesto Sampson