Presentation(s)

Richmond Police Department (RPD) Environmental Officers and Operations Update

Chief of Police Rick Edwards, presented the committee with updates regarding RPD environmental officers and their operations. Chief Edwards stated that RPD environmental officers work with other city agencies to enforce code violations.

The committee requested additional information regarding environmental officers, the Hope outreach team, and the Community Response Team (CRT) having civilians as staff, the number of active environmental officers recruited, and resident environmental concerns.

Chief Edwards responded that officers were sworn police officers and there could potentially be more opportunities to civilianize some of the roles but stated that these roles benefited from being occupied by sworn police officers due to the issuing of citations. Chief Edwards stated that RPD currently only had one environmental officer. Chief Edwards also stated that there were bandwidth concerns within RPD.

Chief Edwards continued to discuss the operations of RPD environmental officers with the committee.

Code Enforcement Updates

Kevin Vonck, Director of the Department of Planning and Development Review (PDR), presented the committee with code enforcement updates.

Director Vonck provided the committee with additional information regarding no violation observed, compliant, and non-compliant. Mr. Vonck stated that the workload volume was more reactive and responsive, and that the Department of Planning and Development Review (PDR) was working toward finding a balance within code enforcement to manage the workload. Mr. Vonck also stated that more discussion would be necessary to potentially establish rental inspection districts to evaluate additional staffing needs. Mr. Vonck further stated that standard operating procedures would need to establish guidelines for greener sustainability.
