CD.2024.015 January 22, 2024 Citizen Comment Period Speakers List

Reid Carter addressed Council and stated his concerns about proposed bike lanes on Westover Hills Boulevard. Mr. Carter provided his suggestions on how the city can amend the current plan to improve traffic and safety.

Bryan McNanley addressed Council and stated his request that the city install a sidewalk to connect a bike path to an existing sidewalk near Richmond Henrico Turnpike.

Erik Bootsma, Safe and Healthy Streets Commission member, addressed Council and stated his support for the proposed bike lanes on Westover Hills Boulevard. Mr. Bootsma also stated that the proposed safety measures for the bike lanes would decrease accidents and fatalities. Mr. Bootsma further stated the plan could be improved, but that he still supported the proposed bike lanes.

John Lugbill, Sports Backers Executive Director, addressed Council and stated his support for the proposed bike lanes on Westover Hills Boulevard. Mr. Lugbill also stated that Westover Hills Boulevard was too dangerous in its current design, and that the proposed bike lanes would slow down vehicles and increase safety.

Whit Clements addressed Council and stated his support for the proposed bike lanes on Westover Hills Boulevard. Mr. Clements also stated that similar designs on other streets in the city helped decrease the amount of vehicles speeding.

Madeline McElgunn addressed Council and she requested that Council support and adopt a proposed resolution entitled Richmond Peace and Justice Resolution for Palestine.

Jasmine Juliet Cuellar addressed Council and stated her support for a proposed resolution entitled Richmond Peace and Justice Resolution for Palestine. Ms. Cuellar also stated that the Gaza conflict was increasing negative effects on the world's climate.

Roxane Rucker addressed Council, and she requested Council support the proposed resolution entitled Richmond Peace and Justice Resolution for Palestine. Ms. Rucker also requested that the city stand up against the suppression of Palestinians.
