Stephen Willoughby, Department of Emergency Communications Director and Coordinator of Emergency Communications, introduced ORD. 2022-289. Mr. Willoughby stated that the organizational change will create a more sharpened focus on coordinated response to emergencies and incidents.

Vice Chair Ann-Frances Lambert inquired about the fiscal impact and potential staffing challenges to the Department of Emergency Communications.

Public Hearing

There were no public hearing speakers.

There were no further comments or discussions and Vice Chair Ann-Frances Lambert moved to forward ORD. 2022-289 to Council with the recommendation to approve, which was seconded and unanimously approved.

Discussion Item(s)

Chairwoman Reva Trammell expressed her frustration that Police Chief Gerald Smith was not present to discuss public safety matters such as the increase in crime and homicides, drug overdoses and police morale. Chairwoman Trammell requested that Police Chief Smith attend the next committee meeting to discuss such matters.

Vice Chair Ann-Frances Lambert recommended that the committee receive reports from the police chief, the fire chief, the Richmond Ambulance Authority and the Department of Emergency Communications at its monthly committee meetings. Vice Chair Lambert requested that Council's staff provide an update to the committee regarding police morale, the status of the staffing of violence interrupter positions, and efforts to reduce gun violence and drug overdoses.

Steve Taylor, Council Policy Analyst, reported that he has been working with city administration to develop an outline of information to present to the committee.

Chairwoman Trammell requested a monthly update from the Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney, and also requested that the police chief provide an update on public safety subject matters at the next Organizational Development Standing Committee meeting scheduled for November 7, 2022.

Councilor Katherine Jordan expressed her support of having an update from the police chief at the next Organizational Development Standing Committee meeting. Councilor Jordan also requested an update at the Organizational Development Standing Committee meeting regarding the city's Project HOPE (Homeless Outreach Partnerships Enforcement).

Mr. Willoughby reported that the Richmond Police Department (RPD) plans to provide information on Operation Red Ball and the gun buy back program at the November Public Safety Standing Committee meeting.

Councilor Katherine Jordan exited the meeting at 1:23 p.m.

Board Vacancies

Pamela Nichols, Council Management Analyst, reviewed board applications for consideration by the committee.

Vice Chair Ann-Frances Lambert moved to forward the following board appointment and reappointment applications to Council with the recommendation to approve, which was seconded and unanimously approved.
