Is this either of yours? Not sure which project this is for.

Richard,

Good afternoon. My wife and I own 920 N 27th St which isn't too far away from the proposed project. We just wanted to reach out to share our support for this new development. The renderings look terrific and would round out that particular pocket quite well. We're happy to hear that there will be some green space and off-street parking, too.

If we can be of additional help in some way, please don't hesitate to reach out.
