Aye -- 7 - * Commissioner Max Hepp-Buchanan, * Commissioner John Thompson, * Commissioner Vivek G. Murthy, * Commissioner Burchell Pinnock, * Commissioner Elizabeth Hancock Greenfield, * Commissioner Rodney Poole and * Commissioner Lincoln Saunders

Director's Report

Director Kevin Vonck provided an update on departmental changes, in addition to an update on Richmond 300 implementation.

Commissioner Greenfield asked about funding for the zoning ordinance rewrite. Director Vonck explained that they feel there is funding in the current departmental budget for a zoning ordinance rewrite, and would be putting out a request for proposals in FY 2023. Deputy Director Maritza Pechin provided an update on the timing.

Commissioner Hepp-Buchanan asked about the timing of the implementation of the Riverfront Plan. Director Vonck provided an explanation, which included searching for funding opportunities.

Chairman Poole asked if the development around the Coliseum would involve moving of a municipal building.

Deputy Director Pechin explained that a "big move" of the City Center Plan is to reduce the municipal footprint downtown.

Commissioner Murthy asked if there are considerations around planning/targeting sports tourism? Director Vonck provided an explanation.

- Council Action Update

Matthew Ebinger provided an update on City Council actions taken at the April 11, 2022 City Council meeting.

Jonathan Brown provided the staff presentation.

Commissioner Pinnock asked for clarification on occupancy.
Chairman Poole asked for clarification on the number of special events.
Commissioner Thompson asked for a clarification on the limitation on the number of employees. Acting Secretary Ebinger provided an explanation.
Commissioner Hepp-Buchanan asked if the applicant is comfortable with the proposed amendments. Acting Secretary confirmed that the applicant is comfortable with the amendments.

Reverend Gary Callis provided the applicant's report.

Chairman Poole asked for clarification from Mr. Callis on several items.

Commissioner Murthy asked for clarification on what is considered a "special event."
Acting Secretary Ebinger and Mr. Callis provided an explanation.

Chairman Poole clarified with Mr. Callis that a majority of the events would be outside, but he would like the ability to have indoor events in the future. An amendment was suggested to allow for special events both inside and outside of the building.

Ms. Cheryl Johnson spoke in opposition, requested that the property should remain commercial.

Mr. Lester Bell spoke in opposition, and also rescinded his opposition once receiving clarification.

A motion was made by Commissioner Murthy, seconded by Commissioner Hepp-Buchanan, that this Ordinance be recommended for approval with the following amendments:

- 1) The operations of the Special Use shall cease by 8:00 pm daily.
- 2) The number of employees located in the building on the Property shall not exceed five employees.
- 3) Special events taking place on the Property on a Saturday or Sunday shall be limited to a maximum of 15 events annually; the number of special events taking place on the Property on a Monday through Friday shall not be limited.
- 4) Special events on the Property may be unrelated to the community use of the Property.
- 5) 40 people maximum are permitted on the Property for special events, which may be outside or inside of the building.

8. [PDRPRES

Mr. Brian Mercer provided a presentation.

Commissioner Pinnock and Commissioner Murthy asked questions and provided input on proposed height and open space. Mr. Mercer, Director Vonck, and Deputy Director Pechin provided explanations.

Commissioner Gordon

Ms. Cyane Crump, representing the Historic Richmond Foundation, provided feedback which included: continuing to have inclined plane and/or FAR requirements, creating a zoning district that would encourage a distinctive brand for Richmond, and placing an emphasis on East Marshall Street as a priority or street-oriented commercial frontage.

Commissioner Pinnock asked for an update on Leigh Street being raised. Mr. Mercer explained that an add-grade street would likely be proposed between the current Coliseum and below grade Leigh Street, with an opportunity for below-grade parking.

Commissioner Thompson asked about the permanent home of the GRTC bus transfer center. Mr. Mercer explained that he has not been involved in those discussions. Deputy Director Pechin explained that the lease agreement between the City and GRTC for the temporary transfer center allows the City to terminate the lease with a one-year notice at any time, and that Dironna Moore from Public Works is the City staff person working directly with GRTC.

Commissioner Murthy asked if there have been conversations about 6th Street connecting to Leigh. Deputy Director Pechin and Mr. Mercer explained that the plan does call for the extension.

Upcoming Items

Acting Secretary Ebinger provided a list of upcoming items for the May 2, 2022 Planning Commission meeting.

Adjournment

Chairman Poole adjourned the meeting at 3:41 pm.
