I don't think so. I work for the University of Richmond. I don't think the university has contracts with the city, but I'm not 100% sure.

Please List Your Educational Background and/or Other Expertise or Qualifications You Will Bring to This Authority, Board, Commission or Task Force:

I was president of the University Faculty Senate at the public university I worked at previously, and I was also president of the statewide Faculty Senate in Tennessee. Thus, I led the representative body of university faculty as we shared in the leadership and governance of the university. I am also on the governance committee of the American Association of University Professors, which works on a national level to promote faculty participation in university governance. While my experience has involved universities as employers and faculty members as employees, I suspect that many of the issues I engaged and skills I developed as a faculty leader would be helpful here.

i have a Phd in History. I have written two books which discuss historic issues in Virginia politics, including Richmond, in the 19th and early 20th century.

I moved to Richmond two years ago, so I am a relatively new resident of the city. However, I grew up in Charlottesville and have been visiting the city of Richmond since I was a kid. I spent considerable time here in the 1990s doing research for my dissertation at the Library of Virginia. And as a historian of Virginia, I know a good bit about the city's past. I love this city and am thrilled to be a resident of it.

In 2014 I earned my Master of Liberal Arts degree from University of Richmond, where I focused on community cultures using Richmond as a case study for many areas. Part of my coursework on community organizations included a trip to Richmond Upon Thames with the Scenic Virginia delegation in March 2014, where I got a firsthand look at the relationship between our two cities and how sister cities can support one another.
