RECOGNITIONS on behalf of the institution of Richmond City Council

Richmond City Council recognizes and celebrates the following:

SUMMARY/NARRATIVE

1 Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation, and Community Facilities

Richmond City Council recognizes and thanks the Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation, and Community Facilities for planning and producing the city's first Jubilation in June event, honoring Juneteenth this year.

The three day event was held across the city and included a performance at Dogwood Dell on Friday; "Shared History In Stories" at 17th Street Market on Saturday; and, a Jubilation Festival at Deepwater Terminal on June 19, complete with fireworks.

A tremendous amount work went into this successful three day event and we want to thank all dedicated staff of the Richmond Department of Parks, Recreation, and Community Facilities for another job well done on behalf of Richmond residents and visitors!

RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL IN REMEMBRANCE

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws, and the Richmond City Charter: Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby and officially bestow.

Ms. Ellalee Fountain Flowers

(November 16, 1923 - May 15, 2022)

Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby celebrate the life, works, service, and legacy of Ms. Ellalee Fountain Flowers in remembrance of her passing on May 17, 2022.

Born in Richmond, Virginia on November 16, 1923 in the historic Jackson Ward Neighborhood, Ms. Ellalee Fountain Flowers graduated at the top of her class from Richmond Public Schools Armstrong High School and went on to earn her Bachelor of Business Administration from Virginia State University and Master of Education from Columbia University.

Known throughout her life for her dedication, commitment, and advocacy on behalf of education and community service, Ms. Flowers taught business courses from 1945 to 1979 at Richmond Public Schools Maggie L. Walker High School and retired as head of its Business Department. Ms. Flowers also taught night school for adult and elementary school aged students.

Following her retirement, Ms. Flowers served as a faculty member of the Virginia Union University Sydney Lewis School of Business, from 1979 to 1987.

As further testament to her commitment, Ms. Flowers was an active member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., which included 80-years of collegiate and alumni community service, leadership, and ongoing commitment to scholarship, public service, and sisterhood, during which time she served as Chair of the Richmond Alumni Chapter's Habitat for Humanity and Political Awareness Committees. Ms. Flowers was also a lifelong member of the NAACP, serving as Secretary for the Richmond Chapter.

Now, Therefore, Richmond City Council does hereby join Ms. Ellalee Fountain Flowers' family, friends, and all those who knew and loved her in celebrating her life and legacy and her more than 80 years of service on behalf of Richmond residents.

In witness whereof, this pronouncement was prepared for Richmond City Council presentation on the twenty-seventh day of June, two thousand twenty-two, in the two hundred eighty-third year of the foundation of Richmond in 1737, in the two hundred forty-fourth year of the Commonwealth of Virginia and United States of America.

RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL IN REMEMBRANCE

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws, and the Richmond City Charter: Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby and officially bestow.

Ms. Cora Dickerson

Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby celebrate the life and legacy of Ms. Cora Dickerson in remembrance of her passing on May 17, 2022.

Serving as an important member of the Richmond Aging and Disabilities Advisory Board, Ms. Cora Dickerson was well known for her compassion, care, and advocacy on behalf of those with needs in our community.

A graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University, Ms. Dickerson dedicated her life to community and public service, which included 30 years of work for United Way of Greater Richmond where her progressive leadership roles included serving as Manager of the 2-1-1 Center and Director of the Infant and Toddler Program.

As further testament to her commitment, Ms. Dickerson served on numerous community boards, committees, and initiatives, which included Goodwill of Central Virginia's Medical Adaptive Equipment Program and Project Homes.

In America, public and community service are considered to be among some of the most noble and important work a person can do and, through her living example, Cora Dickerson proved a great devotion to and support of the principles and creed written into the founding documents of our great nation, in that our individual destinies and that of our families, communities, city, state, and country include not only the aspiration of our federal constitutional republic but, the time, talent, labor, investment, and dedication of all residents in realizing the fulfillment of its promise.

Now, Therefore, Richmond City Council does hereby join Ms. Cora Dickerson's family, friends, and all those who knew and loved her in celebrating her life and legacy on behalf of all Richmond residents.
