Call to Order

Council President Michael Jones called the meeting to order at 6:17 p.m. and presided.

Spanish Interpretation Announcement

City Clerk Candice Reid stated that Spanish interpretation service was available in the Council Chamber and that attendees should speak with a representative to receive the appropriate equipment. City Clerk Reid also stated that Spanish interpretation service was available virtually through Microsoft Teams.

Karla Almendarez-Ramos, Office of Immigrant and Refugee Engagement Manager, then provided Spanish interpretation of City Clerk Candice Reid's announcement.

Invocation was offered by Pastor Matthew Hensley of Richmond's First Baptist Church, 2709 Monument Avenue, Richmond, Virginia.

Members of Council and the audience recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Chamber Emergency Evacuation Plan Announcement and Citizen Speaker Guidelines

Upon the President's request, Assistant City Clerk Rachael Paul provided information on the appropriate manner in which the Council Chamber is to be evacuated in the event of an emergency along with citizen speaker guidelines.

Electronic Participation

Pursuant to Rule III(D)(4)(b) of Council's Rules of Procedure, Councilor Andreas Addison made a request to participate in the meeting via Microsoft Teams from Washington, D.C., due to his participation in a National League of Cities Congressional Conference that prevented his physical attendance. The Councilmembers present were required to adopt a motion to approve Councilor's Addison's participation in the meeting by electronic communication means if it appeared to the body that his request complied with Rule III(D) of Council's Rules of Procedure. A motion was solicited from those members physically assembled to approve Councilor Addison's participation in this meeting by electronic communication means.

Councilor Katherine Jordan moved to allow Councilor Andreas Addison to participate in the meeting by electronic communication means. The motion was seconded and approved: Ayes 8, Jordan, Lambert, Robertson, Lynch, Trammell, Newbille, Nye, Jones. Noes None.

Councilor Andreas Addison joined the meeting via Microsoft Teams at 6:23 p.m.

Councilor Stephanie Lynch stated that OCWB should partner with Richmond Public Schools (RPS) to have a greater impact in the city.

Councilor Ellen Robertson stated her appreciation for the work of the OCWB and its staff regarding poverty in the city.

Councilor Ann-Frances Lambert stated her appreciation for the work of the OCWB and its work to address unemployment in the city.

Councilor Cynthia Newbille stated her appreciation for the work of the OCWB and city administration to improve the lives of residents.

Citizen Comment

CD.2023.099 March 27, 2023 Citizen Comment Period Speakers List

Edward Maynes addressed Council and stated his concerns with the implementation of rental inspection districts in the city. Mr. Maynes also stated that rental inspection districts would be redundant and costly due to previously established codes and regulations related to rental properties.

Zarina Fazaldin addressed Council and stated her concerns with the implementation of rental inspection districts in the city. Ms. Fazaldin informed Council that she owned several rental properties in the city, and she also stated that she believed the proposed rental inspection districts would decrease the amount of affordable housing in the city due to the need to raise rental fees.

Cruz Sherman addressed Council regarding the appointment of a permanent Chief of Police, but he requested to speak regarding investments in the city's Southside.

It was the consensus of Council to allow Mr. Sherman to amend his Citizen Comment subject matter.

Mr. Sherman requested that the city invest in sidewalks and drainage repair, as well as addressing the need for adequate grocery store options in the city's Southside.

Blair Snow-Cave addressed Council and informed members of her experience seeking assistance from the Department of Public Utilities. Ms. Snow-Cave stated that the city should improve its communication with citizens regarding billing issues.

President Michael Jones requested that Sabrina Joy-Hogg, Deputy Chief Administrative Officer for Finance and Administration, speak with Ms. Snow-Cave regarding her issue.

Tanya Jackson, Kidz at Work President, addressed Council and informed members of her negative experience trying to reserve a community space at a Department of Parks and Recreation facility.

Shirley Purdy, Kidz at Work representative, addressed Council and stated that Kidz at Work provides important services for the city's youth.

Councilor Ellen Robertson stated her appreciation for the work of Ms. Jackson and Kidz at Work, and she informed Ms. Jackson that she would meet with her to address her issue.

President Michael Jones requested that Chris Frelke, Department of Parks and Recreation Director, speak with Ms. Jackson regarding her issue.

Agenda Review and Amendments

Councilor Katherine Jordan moved to amend the agenda as follows:

1. ORD. 2022-191 To repeal ch. 16, art. II (§§ 16-19-16-31) of the City Code; to amend ch. 30, art. Public Hearing

CD.2023.110 March 27, 2023 Budget Public Hearing Speakers List

Everett Fields spoke in support of the proposed Fiscal Year (FY) 2024 Budget and the proposed 8% pay increase for city workers. Mr. Fields also stated his support for including the participation of supervisors in collective bargaining with city workers.

Brian Peyton, Teamsters Local 322 President, spoke in support of collective bargaining and requested that the city budget include a contingency plan to fund collective bargaining.

A copy of the material provided has been filed.

Derrick Golden requested that the city fund the purchase of better equipment for city workers to improve quality of work.

Kevin Cianfarini, Beyond Methane RVA Representative, stated his concerns with the expansion of Richmond Gas Works referenced in the proposed budget. Mr. Cianfarini spoke in support of the city promoting the use of electric utilities instead of gas utilities. Mr. Cianfarini also stated that he did not believe it was fiscally responsible to expand the city's gas network as more users switch from gas to electric usage.

Laura Harris, Department of Utilities Employee, spoke in support of allowing supervisors to participate in collective bargaining to ensure adequate pay.

Chelsea Bajek, Richmonders Involved to Strengthen our Communities (RISC) Member, Sacred Heart Catholic Church Member, stated that the FY 2024 Budget should fund the Affordable Housing Trust Fund (AHTF) and a mobile home repair and replacement program.

Autumn Fehr, RISC Member, stated her concerns with the allocation of FY 2024 funds to an affordable housing bond program instead of the AHTF. Ms. Fehr also stated she believed that funding the AHTF was a better fiscal choice for the city.

Martin Wegbreit, RISC Member, Affordable Housing Trust Fund Supervisory Board Member, stated that the city needed to adequately fund the AHTF. Mr. Wegbreit also stated his concerns with oversight of the proposed affordable housing bond program.

Lance Nation, RISC Member, Sacred Heart Catholic Church Member, stated his concerns with funding mobile home repair and replacement program needs. Mr. Nation also stated his concerns that the proposed FY 2024 Budget would not provide sufficient relief to address living conditions of mobile homes in the city.

Paulina Chavez, RISC Member, with Spanish to English translation assistance provided by Karla Almendarez-Ramos, Office of Immigrant and Refugee Engagement Manager, informed members of the mobile home living conditions that she and her family were experiencing. Ms. Chavez stated her appreciation for the allocation of funds for mobile home repair and replacement, but noted her family would not be able to participate in the proposed loan program referenced in the FY 2024 Budget.

Beverly Ross, RISC Member, Sacred Heart Catholic Church Member, stated her concerns with the proposed plan to institute a mobile home repair and replacement loan program, because she did not believe the majority of mobile home residents would be able to afford participating in the loan program.

Ralph Hodge, RISC Member, Second Baptist Church Pastor, stated that the city was in an affordable housing apocalypse, and he informed members of his concerns with the living conditions of mobile homes in the city.

Jamal Kenner, Richmond Public Library Employee, stated his support of the proposed 8% percent raise for city employees, and he also stated he believed it was a result of the work of city worker unions.

Jeff Walker, Participatory Budgeting Steering Commission Member, spoke in support of participatory budgeting and stated it would provide citizens with direct involvement in the city's budget. Mr. Walker also informed members of the current status of the city's Participatory Budgeting Steering Commission.

Ann Forrester, Richmond Public Schools (RPS) Teacher, Richmond Education Association (REA) Member, requested that Council not cut or reallocate any funding proposed for RPS in the FY 2024 Budget. Ms. Forrester also requested that Council reallocate an additional 7 million in funding to fulfill RPS's proposed budget.

Angela Dews, RPS Teacher, REA Former President, stated that funding education was an investment in the city's future. Ms. Dews also stated that improving the city's education system would help increase property values and economic development in the city.

Ansley Perkins spoke in support of fully funding the proposed RPS Budget, and she requested that teachers be shown the appreciation they deserve. Ms. Perkins also addressed the need to fund RPS Capital Improvement Projects.

Thomas King, Richmond Democratic Socialists of America Member, informed members that he was speaking on behalf of his brother and sister in-law. Mr. King addressed the working conditions that his brother and sister in-law experience as teachers in the city.

Keri Treadway, RPS Teacher, REA Member, addressed the conditions of RPS facilities, and she requested that the RPS Budget be fully funded.

Kenya Gibson, Richmond City School Board Member, stated that RPS students deserved and required proper facilities and staffing to fully succeed. Ms. Gibson requested additional funding for the RPS Budget.

Debra Sinnott, Friends of Chimborazo Park Member, Chimborazo Park Conservancy Member, requested that the city fund the repair of sidewalks around Chimborazo Park to increase pedestrian safety. Ms. Sinnott also stated her appreciation for the proposed salary increase for city workers that provide services at Chimborazo Park.

Joe Brancoli, Sierra Club Falls of the James Group Executive Committee Chair, requested that Council address green initiatives when reviewing the FY 2024 Budget.

Nerilis Suarez, RPS Teacher, REA Member, requested that the city fully fund RPS. Ms. Suarez stated that you can not address poverty without improving school funding.

Steven Perks stated his concerns with the city allocating funding to improve facilities at the Diamond Baseball Stadium. Mr. Perks also stated that he believed gun violence prevention, affordable housing, and school funding should have been prioritized.

Councilwoman Reva Trammell stated her appreciation for individuals that provided comments regarding the FY 2024 Budget. Councilwoman Trammell also stated her concerns with the prospect of including supervisors in the city's collective bargaining process. Councilwoman Trammell further stated she would work with colleague to address funding for mobile home repair and replacement.

Councilor Katherine Jordan stated her appreciation for individuals that provided comments regarding the proposed FY 2024 Budget.

Councilor Andreas Addison moved that the budget related ordinances be continued to the Monday, April 24, 2023, Formal Meeting, which was seconded and unanimously approved.
