Citizen Comment

CD.2023.147 April 24, 2023 Citizen Comment Period Speakers List

Jay Philip Victor addressed Council and stated his concerns with the implementation of rental inspection districts in the city. Mr. Victor also stated that rental inspection districts would be redundant and costly due to previously established codes and regulations related to rental properties.

Monica Esparza, Image Church Renewal of Life Land Trust Trustee, Hickory Hill Preservation Committee Member, RVAgreen 2050 Roundtable Member, addressed Council and stated that surrounding residents of the Hickory Hill Community Center preferred a facility that promoted work force development. Ms. Esparza also stated that computer labs and other renovations occurred to assist with work force training at the community center. Ms. Esparza informed members that she opposed the use of the Hickory Hill Community Center as a Richmond Fire training facility.

Gian Bustillo addressed Council and stated that action should be taken to address housing in the city. Mr. Bustillo also stated that more rental properties should be established in the city to provide more housing options for residents. Mr. Bustillo requested that the city lower the real estate tax rate to compete with surrounding counties to attract potential housing developments.

Elizabeth Barrett, Tree Steward, Urban Forestry Commission Founding Member, addressed Council and requested positive change regarding the city's urban forests. Ms. Barrett noted that the city had plans and legislation in place to promote growth and maintenance of the city's trees. Ms. Barrett also stated that action was needed to implement the desired plans of the city to protect trees.

A copy of the material provided has been filed.

Kendra Esparza-Harris, Doctoral Fellow at the University of Missouri Center for Agroforestry, Serene Wildlife Member, addressed Council and stated that the green space and wildlife surrounding the Hickory Hill Community Center was not suited to support a fire training facility at that location.

Delores Esparza, Former Deerbourne Civic Association President, stated her support for the decisions of the Urban Design Committee and City Planning Commission denying the request to use the Hickory Hill Community Center as a fire training facility. Ms. Esparza requested that the city uphold the decisions of its agencies.

Melody Gray, Deerbourne Civic Association Member, addressed Council and stated that she canvassed her neighborhood regarding the proposed fire training facility, and that 68 percent of respondents opposed the proposed facility at the Hickory Hill Center. Ms. Gray also stated that she did not believe Richmond Fire Department officials provided residents with accurate information regarding the proposed facility. Ms. Gray requested that Council uphold the decisions of the Urban Design Committee and City Planning Commission.
