ORDINANCE/RESOLUTION SUMMARY

The Patron requests that legislation be drafted for Council's consideration that designates 2800 P. Street for Reverend Dr. Robert L. Taylor.

BACKGROUND

Dr. Robert L. Taylor pastored and led the Fourth Baptist Church for 35 years. Fourth Baptist Church was the first Black Baptist Church in the Church Hill Community in Richmond. Dr. Taylor brought black and white religious leaders together. He was one, if not the first, black pastor who had an interracial service in the late 1950s. He was recognized in 1974 with the Brotherhood Award by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. As a role model, he always guided and challenged young ministers to be socially active and community conscience. Dr. Taylor was also a pioneer in civil rights. It was not unusual for him to speak to City Council about Ethics and morals. He marched with the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. After his assassination, Dr. Taylor held a vigil to keep the city calm. He travelled to Africa and Europe. During one convention, he argued for Dr. King's birthday to become a national holiday. He graduated from Armstrong High School, where he was president and he received four degrees from VUU. Fourth Baptist Church named its Fellowship Hall in his honor. He served as a Richmond police chaplain as well. He passed away at the age of 95 on February 4, 2012.
