RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL & MAYOR OF RICHMOND

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA - COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA - CITY OF RICHMOND

RICHMOND OFFICIAL JOINT PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws, and the Richmond City Charter, the Mayor of Richmond and Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia in the United States of America, do hereby and officially proclaim:

Richmond Welcoming Week

Whereas, The Honorable Levar M. Stoney, Mayor of Richmond, and Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, do hereby unite in common purpose to declare that an important part of the continued success of a community is that all its new and existing residents feel welcome, accepted, and truly embraced as part of its society and culture; and

Whereas, Richmond is well known for its diversity and for being incredibly welcoming to visitors and new residents, which helps make and keep it culturally vibrant, inviting, thriving, and exciting; and

Whereas, Richmond City Council and Mayor Levar M. Stoney are strong advocates, champions, and supporters of Richmond's rich tapestry of new and existing community members and the ongoing, present, and future success of all Richmond residents; and

Whereas, In 2012, the Welcoming America organization created a National Welcoming Week that is celebrated in communities nationwide during the first part of September each year;

Now, Therefore, In spirit and unity with communities across the nation, Richmond City Council and Mayor Levar M. Stoney do hereby and officially proclaim and establish the first full week of September to be Richmond Welcoming Week, in perpetuity, in Richmond, Virginia and thank all city residents for their commitment to being welcoming to everyone and for helping make our city an even better, happier, and more inclusive place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit, and enjoy family.

Richmond, Virginia

RICHMOND CITY COUNCIL OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the authority vested in the United States of America, Commonwealth of Virginia, Virginia Code of Laws, and the Richmond City Charter, Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, does hereby and officially proclaim:

Richmond Pulmonary Fibrosis Awareness Month

Whereas, Richmond City Council, the governing legislative institution of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, recognizes good health, wellness, and the availability of affordable health care services as being vital to city residents and to a thriving community; and

Whereas, Pulmonary Fibrosis is a deadly lung scarring disease with no true cure and limited treatment options that only slow progression and the possibility of lung transplantation only available to a small number of patients; and

Whereas, Nearly 50,000 people in the U.S. are diagnosed with Pulmonary Fibrosis each year; and

Whereas, Virginia Commonwealth University Health System has made significant contributions in the field of Pulmonary Fibrosis over the past two decades and was recently designated as a Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation Care Center; and

Whereas, In 2012, the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation established the month of September as national Pulmonary Fibrosis Awareness Month to help unify the pulmonary fibrosis community and increase public awareness and research on behalf of this deadly disease; and

Now, Therefore, Richmond City Council does hereby proclaim and establish the month of September to be Richmond Pulmonary Fibrosis Awareness Month, in perpetuity, in Richmond, Virginia; thank Virginia Commonwealth University Health System for the significant contributions it has made in the field of Pulmonary Fibrosis; and encourage all Richmond residents to engage in healthy lifestyles and to have routine check-ups and primary care.
