Southside Community Development & Housing Corporation

The Honorable Members of Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, do hereby unite in solidarity and common purpose to officially recognize, honor and celebrate Ms. Dianna C. Bowser, President/CEO, Southside Community Development & Housing Corporation.

Serving as the President/CEO of the Southside Community Development & Housing Corporation since 2012, Ms. Bowser is recognized for her work supporting its mission of assisting with counseling and home ownership on behalf of low and moderate income residential and commercial development in the Richmond Metropolitan Area.

Founded in 1988 by the Richmond Christian Center, the Southside Community Development & Housing Corporation is located at 1624 Hull Street in the Richmond Southside 8th Voter District and is a nonprofit community development corporation that offers resources, services and programs relating to housing, support in business development and sustainability in employment.

Ms. Bowser is known for her ongoing leadership on behalf of the mission of the Southside Community Development & Housing Corporation regarding home pre-purchase counseling, homebuyer education, financial literacy training and counseling, and default mortgage and foreclosure prevention counseling.

Now, Therefore, Richmond City Council does hereby officially recognize, honor and celebrate Ms. Dianna C. Bowser, President/CEO, Southside Community Development & Housing Corporation; and, thanks her for helping to make Richmond an even better place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit and raise a family.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto given under our hands and presented this twenty-third day of May, two thousand sixteen, of the Common Era, in the two hundred seventy-eighth year since the foundation of Richmond in 1737, in the two hundred fortieth year of the Commonwealth of Virginia and United States of America.

Rebuilding Together of Richmond

The Honorable Members of Richmond City Council, the governing body of Richmond, Virginia, in the United States of America, do hereby unite in solidarity and common purpose to officially recognize, honor and celebrate Ms. Mary Kay Huss, Director, Rebuilding Together of Richmond.

Serving as the Director of Rebuilding Together of Richmond since 2014, Ms. Huss is recognized for her work supporting its mission of providing housing repairs on behalf of seniors with low income and people with disabilities in the Richmond Metropolitan Area.

Established in 1992, Rebuilding Together of Richmond is a volunteer-based nonprofit organization located at 406 W. Franklin Street, Suite B, in the Richmond North Central 2nd Voter District that produces an annual event providing free repair and rehabilitation of homes owned by seniors with low-income and people who are disabled. Examples of repairs and renovations include painting, heating and cooling mediation, roofing, window replacement, removing dangerous trip and fall hazards, and fixing handrail, porch, and lighting issues. Over the years, Rebuilding Together of Richmond has repaired hundreds of homes across the city for residents in need.

Ms. Huss is known for her leadership and dedication to housing programs for people in need, which includes working for the Better Housing Coalition in Richmond and her role as the founding Executive Director of Interfaith Housing Corporation.

Now, Therefore, Richmond City Council does hereby officially recognize, honor and celebrate Ms. Mary Kay Huss, Director, Rebuilding Together of Richmond; and, thanks her for helping to make Richmond an even better place to live, love, work, learn, play, visit and raise a family.
