RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND PLANNING COMMISSION

TO UPDATE THE CITY OF RICHMOND'S MASTER PLAN TO INCLUDE THE FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE PUBLIC ART MASTER PLAN

WHEREAS, the City Planning Commission adopted a Master Plan on November 6, 2000; and the City Council approved said Master Plan by Ordinance 2000-371-01-11 on January 8, 2001; and

WHEREAS, the Public Art Master Plan, known as "Revealing Richmond," includes a 10-year overview of the actions recommended to bring the policies and procedures up to national standards and best practices in the field of public art; and

WHEREAS, the intent of the Public Art Master Plan is to guide the City's and community's future investments into public art; to create expanded opportunities for investment into place making and public realm improvements; to put into place, and fund, tools to help inventory, assess, and maintained the City's growing collection, and to be able to do that on a regular basis; and

WHEREAS, the Public Art Master Plan will enable Richmond to increase the size, quality and scope of its public art collection, gain national recognition in the arts scene, provide opportunities for local artists, and expand the definition of Public Art to include other media; and

WHEREAS, the Public Art Master Plan represents the policy framework to revise the operational procedures of the Public Art Program, to create a more sustainable and adaptable Public Art Program, and implement projects that are in alignment with successful programs nationally; and

WHEREAS, the City Planning Commission conducted a public hearing on June 4, 2018, for the purpose of receiving public comments relative to a proposed amendment to the Master Plan, said amendment being the adoption of the Public Art Master Plan as an incorporated element of the Master Plan; and

WHEREAS, the City Planning Commission has reviewed the Public Art Master Plan and recommended amendments, and taken into consideration comments received at its public hearing;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Planning Commission hereby adopts the above described amendment to the Master Plan as displayed in the Public Art Master Plan and recommended amendments to said Public Art Master Plan.
