Please List Your Educational Background and/or Other Expertise or Qualifications You Will Bring to This Authority, Board, Commission or Task Force:

I am a graduate of The University of Pennsylvania, where I received his B.A. in Urban Studies. Economic revitalization was a major focus of my studies.

I am currently a startup advisor at CloudTower, a small business incubator. CloudTower connects promising founders with proven mentors, investors, support services, working space and lean startup education.

I was previously the Director of Strategic Planning for Richmond based transportation company UZURV, the first licensed Specialty Transportation Network Company (TNC) in the United States, which has created "smart" technologies that tap into the vast TNC resource to fill in the gaps of current municipal transit authority programs. Through this role, I learned more about transportation needs in Richmond and became especially passionate about increasing access for those utilizing para-transit services.

I have also worked as an associate at a real estate development firm, IDS. IDS specializes in the development of community oriented projects, developing both commercial and residential projects with an emphasis on underserved neighborhoods. Utilizing both public and private funding IDS works with creative community partners to leverage limited public funding with private investment. Projects also emphasize creative design options including energy efficiency enhancements. IDS also focuses on Public Housing redevelopment

Other Community Involvement:

I have worked with many of Virginia's museums to interpret history, much of which has been focused on civil rights. I wrote the text for the permanent exhibit "In Pursuit of Freedom, Justice, and Equality" at the Black History Museum and Community Center of Virginia. In 2014, I helped create a Placemaking campaign with the Project for Public Spaces organization for the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

I am advocate for women's and children's rights, and my work has focused on using art and media to tell the stories of those who have been systemically silenced throughout history.

(OPTIONAL) Please List Additional Information You Would Like Considered, or You May Copy and Paste Your Short Resume.

As a woman and a mother, I have the lived experience of being in a protected class and have had to fight against discrimination. I have sought out the help of Virginia's public resources and seen their failures to act in the interest of human and civil rights. It is my desire to improve protections for our citizens so that no one has the experience of having their human and civil rights violated. Additionally, I have two years of experience advocating on Capitol Hill to help win support for legislation, which will be useful in terms of communicating with Congress and drafting bills.

Expert at time management and interpersonal skills such as communicating and diffusing potentially hostile situations due to my extensive real estate experience. I am extremely knowledgeable about every part of this entire city including the South side and West End. I fight for people and what's right in my day to day life and I am certain that I'd be an incredible asset to a team that are just as passionate as I am about this community and overseeing it reach its highest and greatest potential. I have moved around a lot throughout my life so new situations or people don't intimidate me, they're an exciting challenge to me. I look forward to being able to rise to the occasion and represent our city in my own unique way with respect for and while learning from those around me.

I am a passionate individual who fights for what's right. I fulfill my purpose by helping others and have a stern voice when it comes to expressing what I feel is morally correct. I am a hard and organized worker who has closed over 60 real estate transactions, allowing me to be an expert in project management as well as time management and interpersonal skills. I have a love in my heart for Richmond and its people and I plan on doing whatever I can to help as many as I can receive the support and justice I can provide in any way big or small. Taking part in the structure of this city would be a great honor and I know I would not disappoint.

Please List Your Educational Background and/or Other Expertise or Qualifications You Will Bring to This Authority, Board, Commission or Task Force:

As founder and first publisher and editor of Style Weekly, I set the stage for open dialogue about people, issues and events in an inclusive and thoughtful manner -- which prior to 1984 when the paper went weekly was not part of the typical media point of view here. In the past 35 years, I have been active in public service in the Richmond community, striving for improvements as needed in the arts, education and cultural arenas.
