My background in ethics stems from my years of experience working in Human Resources. I currently work at Virginia Housing as a Senior Human Resources Generalist. As a generalist, I work in most aspects of human resources; however, my focus is primarily on performance management, employee relations and compensation. I conduct investigations on code of ethics violations, discriminations, make recommendations following investigations for personnel actions, if applicable. Additionally, I assist with developing policies, reviewing current policies.

Prior to working at Virginia Housing, I worked in local government at Chesterfield County Government Human Resources as the Employee Relations Manager. As the manager, I worked closely with the Senior Assistant Attorney on investigations/employee relations matters and responding to complaints from the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Many of the investigations were related to some code of ethics violation based on policy. I also worked on reviewing and updating policies annually and presenting with leadership team to County Manager. I also assisted the Director of Human Resources with responding to Freedom of Information Act requests. I also partnered with Internal Audit on investigations related to code of ethics violations.

I have a Bachelors Degree in Health Science from George Mason University and a Masters o
