The City’s Richmond 300 Master Plan designates a future land use for the subject properties as Neighborhood Mixed-Use, which is defined as, “Existing or new highly-walkable urban neighborhoods that are predominantly residential with a small, but critical, percentage of parcels providing retail, office, personal service, and institutional uses” (Richmond 300, p. 56, 2020).

Intensity: Building heights are generally two to four stories. Buildings taller than four stories may be found along major streets. Parcels are generally between 1,500 and 5,000 sq. ft.

Primary Uses: Single-family houses, accessory dwelling units, duplexes, small multi-family buildings (typically 3-10 units), and open space. Secondary Uses: Large multifamily buildings (10+units), retail/office/personal service, institutional, cultural, and government.

The current zoning for the property is R-6 - Residential (Single Family Attached). Adjacent properties are within the same R-6 District. The area is generally residential properties.
