RE: To authorize the special use of the properties known as 3019 and 3021 Grayland Avenue, for the purpose of one single-family detached and two single family attached dwellings, upon certain terms and conditions.

ORD. OR RES. No.

PURPOSE: To authorize the special use of the properties known as 3019 and 3021 Grayland Avenue, for the purpose of one single-family detached and two single family attached dwellings, upon certain terms and conditions.

REASON: The applicant intends to construct one single-family detached and two single-family attached dwellings on two adjacent parcels that would not meet the current zoning requirements for side yard setbacks and a lot coverage. A special use permit is therefore required.

RECOMMENDATION: In accordance with the requirements of the City Charter and the Zoning Ordinance, the City Planning Commission will review this request and make a recommendation to City Council. This item will be scheduled for consideration by the Commission at its February 3, 2020, meeting. A letter outlining the Commission's recommendation will be forwarded to City Council following that meeting.

BACKGROUND: 3019 and 3021 Grayland Avenue consist of one vacant 2,400 SF, .05 acre, and one 7,200 SF, .17 acre parcel of land, located in the Carytown neighborhood of the Near West planning district.

The City of Richmond's Master Plan designates a future land use category for the subject property as Single Family Low Density. Primary uses for this category include "…single family detached dwellings at densities up to seven units per acre. Includes residential support uses such as schools, places of worship, neighborhood parks and recreation facilities, and limited public and semi-public uses. Typical zoning classifications that may accommodate this land use category: R-1, R-2, R-3, R-4, and R-5." (City of Richmond Master Plan).

Adjacent properties on the 3100 Block of Grayland Avenue are of similar sized houses and lots. Residential land uses dominate the area, with some two family residential and vacant land uses present as well. All surrounding properties are within the same R-5 Single family zoning district as the subject property.

FISCAL IMPACT / COST: The Department of Planning and Development Review does not anticipate any impact to the City's budget for this or future fiscal years.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS: Staff time for processing the request; preparation of draft ordinance; and publishing, mailing and posting of public notices.
